$1.9 Billion Budget Set By Shafer

Truth-In-Spending Plan Presented To General Assembly

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Shafer, launching what he termed a new "Truth-in-Spending Plan," presented the General Assembly today with a 1968-69 budget just short of the $2 billion figure.

Still mindful of the 12-month 1967 budget battle which he ultimately won with a 1 per cent increase in the sales tax, the governor said:

"As a result of last year's fiscal trauma and the requests for an additional $500 million in spending this year, it is obvious that modern demands are out of balance with our present ability to pay for them. We must do something dramatic about it."

One of the dramatic changes he proposed was funding continuing appropriations on a year-to-year basis; that is, put the money aside now even though it wouldn't be spent for several years.

Once the new accounting system is established, Shafer predicted it would release an additional $25 million which could be used toward raising teachers' salaries.

Shafer appeared before a special one-day joint session of the General Assembly. The lawmakers were called back from a recess which was declared for the duration of the Constitutional Convention.

The budget Shafer presented the lawmakers calls for spending $1,980,615,667 in the fiscal year beginning next July 1 — up from the $1,794,071,935 for this year.

"It is a budget that permits us to live within our present income — a budget that calls for no new taxes," Shafer said.

There was no mention of increases in old taxes, but Shafer did repeat a previous warning to the legislators:

"...I repeat my proposal to veto any appropriation bill that is not accompanied with a revenue measure to pay for it if the funds are not available within our present revenue structure."

To implement the "Truth-in-Spending" concept, Shafer announced he would shortly set up a Commonwealth Priorities Commission. Its job will be to assess the desirability and cost of programs, and determine priorities so "that those who depend on the state will have advance knowledge of what they can expect from us..."

In discussing revenues, Shafer quite candidly conceded that "we are walking a fiscal tight rope and the accuracy of our estimates is critical in this budget."

As usual, the lion's share of the spending would go for education. The budget proposes $1,086,334,549 for this purpose, or 54.4 per cent of total appropriations. The cost of education goes over the billion dollar mark fr the first time.

Included was an $18.5 million increase to an over-all figure of $122.7 million for the state-related universities — Penn State, Temple and the University of Pittsburgh.

Ranking next to education in the budget is welfare, accounting for 25.1 per cent of the proposed spending, at $497.1 million.

Strike Ends, Men Back At Mackintosh

An unauthorized strike has ended at the Midland plant of the Mackintosh - Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co.

The entire plant was idled by the walkout Monday, but the men started returning to work at midnight Tuesday. Some 325 had been idled.

The steelworkers held a meeting Tuesday morning to discuss the grievance that reportedly caused the walkout. The union claimed the company employed a man who had worked only two weeks when there were men with five to nine years service that are laid off.

Joseph Krivan, District 20 staff representative of the Midland area, attended the meeting yesterday.

He later announced that "on the basis of the fact the company agreed to review all disputes as soon as possible, the employes decided to return to work Tuesday at midnight."

U.S. Troops Halt Seoul Students Protesting Talks

SEOUL (AP) — The United States and North Korea held their fourth secret meeting at Panmunjom today on the seizure of the Pueblo, South Korean sources reported. U.S. troops halted 400 South Korean students trying to march on Panmunjom to protest the negotiations.

The South Korean sources said the secret meeting preceded an open session and asserted the United States handed over an apology to the Communists. A U.S. military spokesman denied this. But he did not deny a secret meeting was held.

About five miles south of Panmunjom, U.S. Army troops clashed with demonstrating South Korean college students who tried to march across Freedom Bridge.

South Korean police said the soldiers fired 20 warning shots, then used rifle butts to halt the students in a two-hour melee. They reported at least 24 students were injured, nine seriously. A statement from the 2nd U.S. Infantry Division, whose unit was involved, said no one was injured.

Most of the students were rounded up by South Korean national police, a 2nd Division spokesman said.

A few students actually crossed the well-guarded bridge but were headed off by U.S. troops and South Korean police.

Even had all the students crossed the bridge, they would have been unable to reach Panmunjom. The way is barred by a fence 10 feet high and gates to the meeting site are heavily guarded.

The students were demonstrating against U.S.-North Korean talks for the release of the USS Pueblo and her crew. Police said the demonstrators were trying to march over the bridge across the Imvin river to the conference site at Panmunjom, where U.S. and North Korean officials met today at an open meeting of the Military Armistice Commission.

Washington Talks Slated On New Span

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP)—Federal officials and highway engineers from West Virginia and Ohio were scheduled to meet with President Johnson in Washington today to try and expedite construction of a new bridge across the Ohio River here.

The death count in the Dec. 15 collapse of the Silver Bridge here rose to 42 Tuesday with the discovery of a body at Manchester, Ohio, 132 miles downstream from the site of the fallen bridge.

The victim was identified as Denzil Ray Taylor, 25, of Point Pleasant. The body was found by two farmers who had been attempting to salvage a sunken boat. Four persons are still listed missing.

On Tuesday Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes visited Gallipolis, and warned that severe unemployment in the Point Pleasant-Kanauga - Gallipolis area could result from the bridge disaster unless immediate steps are taken to replace the span.

"A high percentage of the work force in this area normally commutes daily across the Ohio River," said Rhodes.

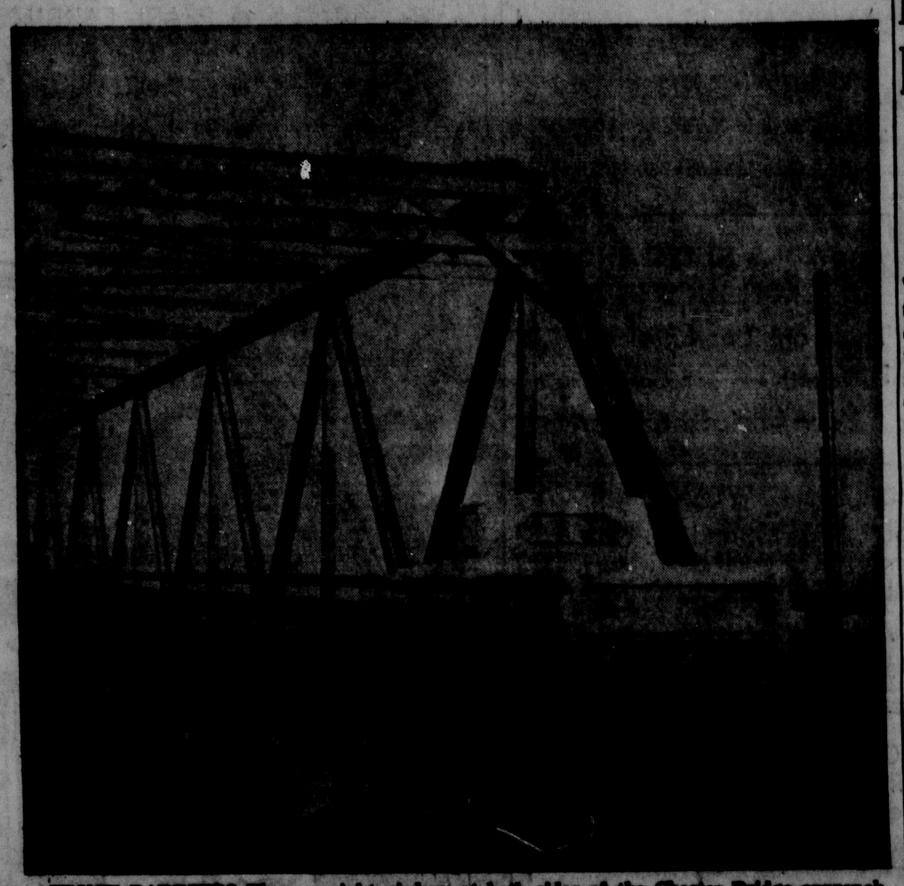
Bridge Barrier Delayed



TRUCK BARRIER? These upright girders at both sides of the Chester Bridge approach on the West Virginia end were installed this week in preparation for a horizontal barrier beam. Work has been suspended while a study is made of the legal aspects of the barrier plan, designed to keep big trucks off the span.

Erection of 7-foot-high metal barrier and signs intended to keep large vehicles off the Chester Bridge has been halted while Ohio Highway Department officials probe the legal aspects of such an action.

Continued use of the span by truckers, despite a 2½-ton load limit, brought a decision to install the low clearance bar at both ends of the structure.

WORKERS began installation of the upright supports this week, but stopped Tuesday when authorities at the Columbus office of the highway department apparently had some second thoughts about the barrier.

The ban on trucks and buses was ordered effective Jan. 24 after the engineering firm of Modjeski & Masters of Harrisburg, Pa., discovered corrosion in cable anchorages and recommended a reduction of the load limit.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon early today said it has received the names of four Navy men who are dead or wounded as a result of the seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo by North Korea.

The Pentagon—which declined to reveal the source of its information—said none of the names would be released publicly until the families of the dead and injured crewmen have been notified.

The questions raised by the Pueblo's capture off the North Korean port of Wonsan continue to echo in Congress.

5 Tanks Destroyed; Assault Seen Start Of Huge Offensive

SAIGON (AP) — The North Vietnamese sent their Russian tanks into the Vietnam war today, apparently for the first time, against South Vietnamese irregulars and their American Green Beret advisers fighting furiously to hold onto a Special Forces camp in the northwest corner of South Vietnam.

Reports from Da Nang said a Special Forces sergeant had radioed that only five of the 25 Americans in the Lang Vei camp were still alive—he and four others in the headquarters bunker. He reported a knocked-out tank was on top of the bunker.

The U.S. Command said Lang Vei's defenders destroyed five of the nine Russian T34 tanks sent against them.

The massive assault on Lang Vei, four miles west of Khe Sanh, could be the kickoff of the long anticipated offensive along the northern frontier, which Gen. William C. Westmoreland has predicted will be the biggest enemy push of the war, exceeding the furious assaults on South Vietnamese cities and towns last week.

The campaign against the cities, the largest enemy offensive so far, has died down at most points after eight days, but Viet Cong forces still fought stubbornly in Saigon and Hue.

The U.S. Command said the enemy death toll in the past eight days reached 22,748 by midnight Tuesday. It said 1,703 allied troops have been killed, including 614 Americans and 1,130 South Vietnamese.

Military spokesmen said the North Vietnamese began pounding the Lang Vei camp with artillery at dusk Tuesday, then launched the ground attack about two hours later. The nine Russian tanks rumbled east

Beaver Local Will Vote On 2-Mill Issue

The cost of retiring a proposed $485,000 bond issue for additional classrooms in Beaver Local School District was set at 2 mills by the board of education at a special meeting this morning.

The board also approved a resolution to be sent to the Columbiana County Board of Elections to have the special issue placed on the May 7 primary election ballot.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell advised the board of the 2-mill retirement cost for the bond issue sought to provide funds for additional classrooms and facilities for the high school and Public School.

A proposed $480,000 bond issue was turned down by voters in November, but the board has warned of increasingly overcrowded conditions and the need for additional facilities as a result of the growing population.

The bond issue was recommended by the Association for Advancement of Beaver Local Education (ABLE) at a meeting with the board this week.

The millage required for the bond issue in November was set at 1.95. Although the new proposal is $5,000 higher than the previous, the small millage increase amount is attributed to the increase in bond interest in that period. In November it would have been 4½ per cent, according to Supt. Roy Cash. dollar. Today, it is 5 per cent.

Westmoreland has predicted will be the biggest enemy push of the war, exceeding the furious assaults on South Vietnamese cities and towns last week.

The campaign against the cities, the largest enemy offensive so far, has died down at most points after eight days, but Viet Cong forces still fought stubbornly in Saigon and Hue.

The U.S. Command said the enemy death toll in the past eight days reached 22,748 by midnight Tuesday. It said 1,768 allied troops have been killed, including 614 Americans and 1,130 South Vietnamese.

Military spokesmen said the North Vietnamese began pounding the Lang Vei camp with artillery at dusk Tuesday, then launched the ground attack about two hours later. The nine Russian tanks rumbled east

Beaver Local Will Vote On 2-Mill Issue

The cost of retiring a proposed $485,000 bond issue for additional classrooms in Beaver Local School District was set at 2 mills by the board of education at a special meeting this morning.

The board also approved a resolution to be sent to the Columbiana County Board of Elections to have the special issue placed on the May 7 primary election ballot.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell advised the board of the 2-mill retirement cost for the bond issue sought to provide funds for additional classrooms and facilities for the high school and Public School.

A proposed $480,000 bond issue was turned down by voters in November, but the board has warned of increasingly overcrowded conditions and the need for additional facilities as a result of the growing population.

The bond issue was recommended by the Association for Advancement of Beaver Local Education (ABLE) at a meeting with the board this week.

The millage required for the bond issue in November was set at 1.95. Although the new proposal is $5,000 higher than the previous, the small millage increase amount is attributed to the increase in bond interest in that period. In November it would have been 4½ per cent, according to Supt. Roy Cashdollar. Today, it is 5 per cent.

Council Gets Cumberland Road Report

NEW CUMBERLAND — The West Virginia State Road Commission has notified officials of New Cumberland that a portion of Route 2 through the county will be repaired as soon as weather permits. Figures of the cost of repairs were not quoted, but Mayor Arthur Watson said the work is scheduled.

The street committee recommended resurfacing of six streets in the village. Members suggested Commerce St. be repaired first since it is used as a detour for Route 2 in emergencies. Other streets are Jefferson St. from Chester to the River, Fillmore St. beside Phillip's Hardware store, Morris St. from Ridge Ave. to the community house, S. Chester St. and S. Chestnut St. from the railroad tracks to the sewage plant.

Councilman Dean Chamberlain suggested the street committee estimate the cost of repairs for the budget.

The police committee reported it has notified owners of junked cars and persons allowing garbage to gather on their property to dispose of it or action will be taken.

Mayor Watson reported he wrote a letter to the Pennsylvania Railroad concerning condition of crossings and tracks in the town. Due to the track condition, he said, driving is hazardous, and the tracks presently are located close to many houses.

He said no reply has been received.

The water-sewage board announced that with the exception of having the wet-well pumps, the plant now is ready to resume operations. If weather conditions permit, it will begin operating this week.

Mayor Watson reported meeting with Ronald Wilson and Steve Yurko of the Hancock County Community Action Council to discuss the five youth corps employes. The mayor and Council decided to continue their employment.

186 Registered In Driver Classes

There are 186 students registered in the driver education courses which began Monday evening at Wellsville High School, Donald Lowe, superintendent, reports.

Lowe said there are two classes, one meeting Monday and Wednesday and the other Tuesday and Thursday.

Only classroom instruction can be given for the present, he said, because the instruction car, a 1966 Ford, loaned to the high school by Bob White Ford, Inc., is not yet equipped with dual controls.

The old controls were for a 1966 car and could not be fitted on the new model, he explained. New controls have been ordered.

PTA Addressed By Clinic's Aide

Gordon Fedasko of the county Mental Health Clinic was guest speaker when the MacDonald Parent - Teacher Association met Monday night at Wellsville.

An article on "Founders Day" was read by Mrs. Helen Martin, president.

Mrs. Christine Wilson's morning kindergarten group won the room count.

A white elephant sale was held. Refreshments were served by second - grade mothers. Dr. Alex Fisher of East Liverpool will speak at the March 4 meeting.

Watchdog Of The World

Anti-American resentment is building in South Korea over handling of the USS Pueblo incident and a North Korean attempt to kill President Chung Hee Park. There is a lesson for America in this about-face.

International friendship is an elusive commodity.

America has a global view. A country like South Korea has a provincial view.

The United States has preferred to keep diplomatic negotiations over the USS Pueblo at low key. After all, it was a United States ship, not a United Nations vessel. In addition, there is the matter of the Vietnam War that must be considered if the United States ever resorted to violence against North Korea.

Naturally, the United States doesn't want to fight two wars simultaneously if it can be avoided.

The assassination attempt failed. It apparently is being considered as another of the hundreds of truce infractions by North Korea, though a serious one.

Everything is relative. In an absence of other more important natters, the Communist thrust into South Korea might have been a significant international incident.

The lives of more than 80 American crewmen are in jeopardy, and this fact alone merits caution in diplomacy. Blood can be drawn at any time the signal is given, but once it has started, a single life cannot be called back.

American officials hoped South Korea would understand their position of weighing all implications before going off the deep end.

South Korea is thinking about its own position and threatening independent action. Some legislators have called for pulling South Korea's 45,000 troops out of South Vietnam.

It's hard to believe South Korea would want to become involved in another war without U. S. assistance; but signs are pointing toward a sharp South Korean - American split.

South Korea's anger means the United States must move diplomatically to head off trouble with that country, while fighting a bloody war in Vietnam, trying to get the USS Pueblo and its crew back and keeping a military finger in dikes around the globe.

It's all part of being the Watchdog of the World.

Downtown Dilemma

Opening of the first link of the Freeway five years ago, diverting through traffic from the downtown area of East Liverpool, brought a significant easing of vehicular congestion in the Diamond and intersecting streets.

Relocation of the high school to Maine Blvd. next fall should bring a further improvement.

But the increase in the number of autos continues, and failure to provide for sensible traffic flow patterns and controls promises a continuation of the creep and crawl practice in the coming years.

For example, motorists using the drive - in bank on E. 4th St. bog down in lines which back up autos and trucks both ways at times as much as a half block or more.

The awkward junction of St. Clair, Broadway and Lincoln Ave. has been further complicated — and made more hazardous — by a private parking lot entrance upon the same intersection.

Left turn provisions at Broadway and E. 6th St. and St. Clair Ave. and 6th St. are also dangerous, and clog the free flow of through and right turn traffic.

Angled parking on narrow Washington St. between Broadway and E. 5th St. restricts movement, and halts it for minutes at a time when a car is backed out of a parking place against the direction of traffic.

Construction of a new post office on Dresden Ave. will bring new problems at the busy intersection with W. 8th St.

One-way signs for a number of streets are too small and not properly placed to guide the average driver unfamiliar with the city.

Someone should be devoting study of solving these trouble spots — and that someone is obviously the city traffic commission which has met only rarely in the past two years.

It is clear to any driver who spends ten minutes trying to get across town on a late Saturday morning the traffic commission is not meeting its responsibilities.

We suggest the commission: 1. Meet, and 2. Attempt to come up with some recommendations, either based on the Michael Baker Jr. survey of 1956 or the interim reports of the new comprehensive plan for the city.

The time has come to make the downtown a place where any motorist can operate an auto with logic and without delay—the city resident who wants to do business in his own hometown and the visitors to whom a trip into the Central Business District during peak traffic hours can become a frustrating adventure in wasted time, confusion and no-whereism.

Happiness Is . . .

Two East Liverpool teachers—both in their forties—were taken aback this week when they belatedly visited their student mail boxes at Geneva College where they are taking courses.

They found two notices from the college. One read, "This is the third and last time you will be advised to have your pictures taken for the yearbook."

The other invited them to become candidates for an annual queen competition, and to file a card listing their measurements and other data.

The reaction was a curious mixture of remembrance of the pleasant years of youth and a new realization of how much personal evaluations of important things can change with the passage of time.

Gloomy Summer Predictions

The National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders is to deliver its report to President Johnson in March but gloomy predictions already are being leaked.

No commission member will publicly predict violence in 1968 but they say nothing has changed substantially in the nation's slums. Factors involved in last summer's unrest still are present.

Perhaps one of the key leaks is the report that members are unable to agree on what steps can be taken to avoid further violence erupting from ghettos and spreading.

There is no mass immunization program available to protect Americans against an emotional outbreak.

Anyone or any community expecting the commission report to come up with a quick cure for the problem is going to be disappointed.

Communities most likely to escape summer turbulence are those moving quietly to correct existing deficiencies. Model city programs and other great government projects far removed from basic slum problems have little meaning.

Work in areas like garbage collection, housing and employment mean something to people living on the fringe of existence.

Public officials who listen attentatively to gripes from citizens representing all parts of the community and do something about legitimate complaints are working for harmony in their cities.

Urban renewal, public housing and expansion of recreational facilities are aimed at upgrading living standards for a city's poverty stricken and unfortunate citizens.

Progress in all these areas of human need is worth more to a poor family than a bushel of proposals that aren't going anyplace.

Organizations outside the official family, like churches and clubs, can help cut across lines of prejudice and foster understanding.

When a community is moving in the areas mentioned above, it is on the road to destroying the breeding place of hate and violence. It is meeting its responsibility to slum citizens.

It also has a responsibility to those who live outside slums to provide protection from hooliganism, rioting and arson — regardless of where or why it starts.

A community must be just as firm in dealing with lawlessness as it is in tackling conditions in areas that require rehabilitation.

Keeping In Gear

Council's action Monday night establishing the combined post of city housing and zoning inspector puts another gear into the increasingly modernized operation of municipal government which is already moving East Liverpool along paths of new progress.

Filling the position now will mean implementation and enforcement of housing and zoning regulations — vital outgrowths of the comprehensive plan and previous studies.

The support by the community and the decisiveness of the administration and Council mean not only better and safer housing and neighborhood development in the future, but continuing commitment to "the plan" and what it can do for this city.

VICTOR RIESEL

Rampant Labor Front Crime

WASHINGTON — Sometimes this home front is as raw and violent as far-off firing lines. No one need be shipped east of Suez to run into fire-bombed homes, torn and twisted rail lines, burning buildings, autos and trucks toppled and burned, shooting, sabotage, and a long bloody series of terrorist operations.

Victor Riesel

These are uncivil disorders, deliberately planned, and have no relation to the passionate violence of our inner cities. The violence sketchily described above started long before the urban explosions and has continued long since the last urban burnings.

It is the violence, the shootings, the beatings of men which occur with fantastic coincidence during strikes and "labor disputes" on a wide front, stretching from coal and steel country into the heart of such megalopolises as New York, St. Louis and the San Francisco Bay area.

So much property has been damaged, so many men have been beaten (one even killed), so many homes have been given the Molotov cocktail treatment, so many hundreds of other instances of striketime violence are in Justice Dept. files and so many national labor and civic leaders are unaware of local violence, that it's most certainly time to turn on the spotlight and the heat.

The other day, on returning from Pittsburgh, I crossed territory that appears never to have lifted itself out of the roaring, dynamite-laden '20's.

Meaning no disrespect to the lonely 88-year-old John Lewis, the report nonetheless is that his miners still rove in packs of hundreds. Their picketing and demonstrating still are paralleled by violence.

NO ONE KNOWS who starts anything. But on Jan. 30 one opposition union hall in Clymer, Pa., burned during the latest coal diggers upheaval. One opposition union official was dragged from his car, which the assailants had the forethought to tip over first. There was also some mysterious burning of mine operators property. Not too long ago in the same area, four opposition miners were pulled out of their car and mauled.

Yet, this is 1968 — not 1928. But this era of moon landings appears not to have left any civilized touch on many areas outside the coal fields.

In New York and California, for example, there have been 17 "incidents" involving officials of the Radio Corporation of America (RCA). By some weird coincidence, RCA has had difficulty with a division of the Teamsters' new labor federaton.

No one knows who did what. But that does not comfort the RCA supervisor whose home was fire-bombed while he was at work.

So overshadowed by "civil disorders" is violence on this front that it is barely reported and scarcely noticed outside the neighborhood in which it occurs.

Those to whom the record and files are available can put a finger on any calendar or U.S. map and hit a mess and mass of such violence.

From August, 15, 1966 to January 7, 1967 the Alabama Power Co. was hit by at least 50 acts of sabotage which hit the company's power transmission facilities.

Oil was drained from transformers. Chains were dragged across power lines. Guy wires on transmission line poles were cut.

GUNFIRE DESTROYED power equipment. Power line poles were cut and burned. Expensive equipment was tampered with and destroyed. Some employes' homes were burned. They were men who did not strike.

Or, between Nov. 3, 1966 and Dec. 4, 1966, at least 26 natural gas pipelines were dynamited in West Virginia and Kentucky. Explosions destroyed an outlet line and valve operator. Dynamite sticks, fuses and blasting caps were found adjacent to gas lines. There were gun fire and sawing of gas pipe valve stems.

Since then, in other parts of the country, men and machines were hammered and destroyed.

The Illinois Consolidated Telephone Co. in Litchfield, Ill., was hit by 100 costly "incidents." Fuses were pulled from terminal boxes. Steel wool and water were thrust in to kill the service. Wires anrd cables were cut in the Litchfield toll center. Steel wool was inserted between the cut ends of cables. Elsewhere switches were heavily damaged.

And just a few months ago, steel haulers revolted throughout the Midwest. There were 50 violent "incidents" — including the death of a driver whose truck careened after his windshield was hit by a thrown rock.

Trucks were fire-bombed. Three big tractors were wiped out by fire. Men were shot at. Others were beaten in this same feud.

Justice Dept. files show such "incidents" as the destruction of $600,000 worth of earth-moving and Caterpillar tractors wrecked by dynamite explosions in Huntingburg, Ind. Another explosion a few months ago in Glass Valley Calif., blasted machinery at a timber corporation. So it goes. Bloody incident after incident. Fire bombing after fire bombing. Bullet after bullet. But the public doesn't seem to mind. Apparently if the other fellow is hit, it's an incident. Should it come close to home, it's a wave of violence. Doesn't anybody care about law and order?

Purely Personal Observations

A garbage strike in New York City dramatizes the looming menace of our super-affluent society—the possibility of smothering in our own rubbish if cleanup people ever found something better to do.

Have you ever wondered why there shouldn't be a sign in the center of every steering wheel warning the user that driving may be "hazardous to his health," the same as it says on cigarette packages? And what about alcoholic beverages, saturated fats, candy and drugs with hazardous side effects?

Whenever I see one of those grisly outfits that transport live animals to slaughter houses, I brood about vegetarianism. Acknowledging that animals can't read and don't know what awaits them at the end of their harrowing journey, half-frozen in winter, half-suffocated in summer, they have prescience about death, the same as human beings.

When it's time to think about taxes and the way spenders confiscate what belongs to us so they can live in the style to which we have let them become accustomed, I wonder how much of the money we ladle out in tax payments ends up in the wrong hands. Doesn't everybody?

I couldn't care less about the Winter Olympics in Grenoble, or anywhere else, but I would jump at a chance to observe Winter Olympians in their off-moments in what strikes me as one of the most congenial atmospheres imaginable for camaraderie.

The lady I turn out lights with has a sure-fire comeback for smarties who coax her beyond her depth in scientific knowledge. She stops them in their tracks by widening her eyes and murmuring, "Look, Mac, I don't understand the telephone so don't expect me to understand THAT!"

Speaking of frustration, you have the income tax chore all neatly tied up and ready for the mailman when you remember you forgot to say anything about an item which automatically would trip you up if you didn't get a new blank and start all over again from scratch. That's frustration.

Thanks to Art Buchwald for noting the similarity between what is happening to our militarists in Vietnam and what happened to Gen. Custer, who also was sure he was "holding the enemy's feet to the fire," in the ill-chosen words of Everett McKinley Dirksen of Illinois.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Facing The Truth

This isn't the first time the United States has found itself enmeshed in a war thousands of miles away which can affect its future security and destiny.

Nor is it the first time superficial criticism, unfamiliarty with the true signficance of our government's action and exhibitions of political partisanship have made difficult here at home the formulation of a constructive policy.

What America needs most in the Asian crisis is unity among its own people and a greater display of friendship and positive action by the many nations abroad whch have not yet come to realize the Vietnamese situation is a world problem.

EVENTS OF the last few days have dramatized the fact Vietnam's troubles are not going to be solved simply by military action within its own borders, though the need for an offensive strategy has been accentuated. Likewise, talk of "peace negotiations" has proved fruitless.

The main responsibility lies with sponsors of the banditry who have openly admitted their status as belligerents.

Moscow has sent billions of dollars of war supplies, and Peking has aided conspirators and infiltrators, upon whom blame for the conduct of the guerrilla war in Vietnam rests. Tied in with the whole situation are North Korean raids on South Korea.

The United States has pleaded in vain with the Unted Nations. That organization today is frustrated.

The small nations cast a majority vote and could change the whole face of things, but they fear the antagonism of the Communist regimes with their far-flung power to subvert and overthrow local governments. So the free countries will have to unite and in a concerted way compel both Moscow and Peking to halt their mischief-making.

This does not mean merely use of military force in a border war. It means recognition at last that economic measures can become a powerful influence in shaping the course of hostile governments.

The United States can form a new group of allies and call for support first of a worldwde economic blockade of North Vietnam, then, if necessary, a cut-off of all trade with Communist countries directly or indirectly supportng the war in Southeast Asia.

Despite the sacrifices which 500,000 Americans in our armed servces in Vietnam are called upon to make, there is no blockade by sea in the waters surrounding the battle region. A new international alliance could demand abstinence from the war by the Russians and Red Chinese, or else impose drastic restrictions on trade between the free world and the major countries on the Communist side.

THE LATTER co-manage the highly organized system of guerrilla warfare which is challenging the United States and its allies in Vietnam.

This could eventually require the declaration of "a state of war" so as to make lawful interception at sea of merchant ships carrying to North Vietnam supplies of a military nature or products from which munitions can be made.

If the United States did outline such a policy in public after enlisting the help of free countries from all parts of the world, it is possible Peking and Moscow would soon begin to extricate themselves from the Vietnam dilemma.

One thing is clear. The United States cannot retreat and ignore the part that Communist governments are playing in the buildup of North Vietnamese forces. Not only are the troops of this country and its allies being killed, but tens of thousands of Vietnamese civilians are being victimized.

If ever there were a basis for intervention by the United Nations — such as happened when "peacekeeping" task forces were sent into Africa — the Vietnam situation affords such a case.

If the Unted Nations fails, this will call for the creation of a new international alliance. Otherwise, all of Asia and perhaps the people of other continents as well will be subjected to guerrilla savagery.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — A special program, including a mock wedding, was presented by the four first grades of 3rd St. School, with Pauline Ruben and Charles Race as the bride and groom.

A proposal to erect a 3,000-seat basketball gym on the W. 8th St. side of Patterson field was placed before the board of education by G. Stewart Thompson, president.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. Mildred Diven and Mrs. Emma Palmer were received as new members of the Four Aces Club.

Leland Dorsey Jr. of W. 4th St. resumed his studies at Bowling Green University after spending the mid-year vacation with his parents.

TEN YEARS AGO — Mrs. Norma Ollis was named president of the Young Married Women's Club and Mrs. Betty Davis vice president.

Clarence F. Crytzer was elected commodore of the Board of Trustees of the East Liverpool Yacht Club.

A public card party held by the Taft Parent - Teacher Association netted funds with which to continue the salaries of school crossing guards the remainder of the 1947-48 term and through the first semester of the 1948-49.

Anyone or any community expecting the commission report to come up with a quick cure for the problem is going to be disappointed.

Communities most likely to escape summer turbulence are those moving quietly to correct existing deficiencies. Model city programs and other great government projects far removed from basic slum problems have little meaning.

Work in areas like garbage collection, housing and employment mean something to people living on the fringe of existence.

Public officials who listen attentatively to gripes from citizens representing all parts of the community and do something about legitimate complaints are working for harmony in their cities.

Urban renewal, public housing and expansion of recreational facilities are aimed at upgrading living standards for a city's poverty stricken and unfortunate citizens.

Progress in all these areas of human need is worth more to a poor family than a bushel of proposals that aren't going anyplace.

Organizations outside the official family, like churches and clubs, can help cut across lines of prejudice and foster understanding.

When a community is moving in the areas mentioned above, it is on the road to destroying the breeding place of hate and violence. It is meeting its responsibility to slum citizens.

It also has a responsibility to those who live outside slums to provide protection from hooliganism, rioting and arson — regardless of where or why it starts.

A community must be just as firm in dealing with lawlessness as it is in tackling conditions in areas that require rehabilitation.

Keeping In Gear

Council's action Monday night establishing the combined post of city housing and zoning inspector puts another gear into the increasingly modernized operation of municipal government which is already moving East Liverpool along paths of new progress.

Filling the position now will mean implementation and enforcement of housing and zoning regulations — vital outgrowths of the comprehensive plan and previous studies.

The support by the community and the decisiveness of the administration and Council mean not only better and safer housing and neighborhood development in the future, but continuing commitment to "the plan" and what it can do for this city.

VICTOR RIESEL

Rampant Labor Front Crime

WASHINGTON — Sometimes this home front is as raw and violent as far-off firing lines. No one need be shipped east of Suez to run into fire-bombed homes, torn and twisted rail lines, burning buildings, autos and trucks toppled and burned, shooting, sabotage, and a long bloody series of terrorist operations.

Victor Riesel

These are uncivil disorders, deliberately planned, and have no relation to the passionate violence of our inner cities. The violence sketchily described above started long before the urban explosions and has continued long since the last urban burnings.

It is the violence, the shootings, the beatings of men which occur with fantastic coincidence during strikes and "labor disputes" on a wide front, stretching from coal and steel country into the heart of such megalopolises as New York, St. Louis and the San Francisco Bay area.

So much property has been damaged, so many men have been beaten (one even killed), so many homes have been given the Molotov cocktail treatment, so many hundreds of other instances of striketime violence are in Justice Dept. files and so many national labor and civic leaders are unaware of local violence, that it's most certainly time to turn on the spotlight and the heat.

The other day, on returning from Pittsburgh, I crossed territory that appears never to have lifted itself out of the roaring, dynamite-laden '20's.

Meaning no disrespect to the lonely 88-year-old John Lewis, the report nonetheless is that his miners still rove in packs of hundreds. Their picketing and demonstrating still are paralleled by violence.

NO ONE KNOWS who starts anything. But on Jan. 30 one opposition union hall in Clymer, Pa., burned during the latest coal diggers upheaval. One opposition union official was dragged from his car, which the assailants had the forethought to tip over first. There was also some mysterious burning of mine operators property. Not too long ago in the same area, four opposition miners were pulled out of their car and mauled.

Yet, this is 1968 — not 1928. But this era of moon landings appears not to have left any civilized touch on many areas outside the coal fields.

In New York and California, for example, there have been 17 "incidents" involving officials of the Radio Corporation of America (RCA). By some weird coincidence, RCA has had difficulty with a division of the Teamsters' new labor federaton.

No one knows who did what. But that does not comfort the RCA supervisor whose home was fire-bombed while he was at work.

So overshadowed by "civil disorders" is violence on this front that it is barely reported and scarcely noticed outside the neighborhood in which it occurs.

Those to whom the record and files are available can put a finger on any calendar or U.S. map and hit a mess and mass of such violence.

From August, 15, 1966 to January 7, 1967 the Alabama Power Co. was hit by at least 50 acts of sabotage which hit the company's power transmission facilities.

Oil was drained from transformers. Chains were dragged across power lines. Guy wires on transmission line poles were cut.

GUNFIRE DESTROYED power equipment. Power line poles were cut and burned. Expensive equipment was tampered with and destroyed. Some employes' homes were burned. They were men who did not strike.

Or, between Nov. 3, 1966 and Dec. 4, 1966, at least 26 natural gas pipelines were dynamited in West Virginia and Kentucky. Explosions destroyed an outlet line and valve operator. Dynamite sticks, fuses and blasting caps were found adjacent to gas lines. There were gun fire and sawing of gas pipe valve stems.

Since then, in other parts of the country, men and machines were hammered and destroyed.

The Illinois Consolidated Telephone Co. in Litchfield, Ill., was hit by 100 costly "incidents." Fuses were pulled from terminal boxes. Steel wool and water were thrust in to kill the service. Wires anrd cables were cut in the Litchfield toll center. Steel wool was inserted between the cut ends of cables. Elsewhere switches were heavily damaged.

And just a few months ago, steel haulers revolted throughout the Midwest. There were 50 violent "incidents" — including the death of a driver whose truck careened after his windshield was hit by a thrown rock.

Trucks were fire-bombed. Three big tractors were wiped out by fire. Men were shot at. Others were beaten in this same feud.

Justice Dept. files show such "incidents" as the destruction of $600,000 worth of earth-moving and Caterpillar tractors wrecked by dynamite explosions in Huntingburg, Ind. Another explosion a few months ago in Glass Valley Calif., blasted machinery at a timber corporation. So it goes. Bloody incident after incident. Fire bombing after fire bombing. Bullet after bullet. But the public doesn't seem to mind. Apparently if the other fellow is hit, it's an incident. Should it come close to home, it's a wave of violence. Doesn't anybody care about law and order?

Purely Personal Observations

A garbage strike in New York City dramatizes the looming menace of our super-affluent society—the possibility of smothering in our own rubbish if cleanup people ever found something better to do.

Have you ever wondered why there shouldn't be a sign in the center of every steering wheel warning the user that driving may be "hazardous to his health," the same as it says on cigarette packages? And what about alcoholic beverages, saturated fats, candy and drugs with hazardous side effects?

Whenever I see one of those grisly outfits that transport live animals to slaughter houses, I brood about vegetarianism. Acknowledging that animals can't read and don't know what awaits them at the end of their harrowing journey, half-frozen in winter, half-suffocated in summer, they have prescience about death, the same as human beings.

When it's time to think about taxes and the way spenders confiscate what belongs to us so they can live in the style to which we have let them become accustomed. I wonder how much of the money we ladle out in tax payments ends up in the wrong hands. Doesn't everybody?

I couldn't care less about the Winter Olympics in Grenoble, or anywhere else, but I would jump at a chance to observe Winter Olympians in their off-moments in what strikes me as one of the most congenial atmospheres imaginable for camaraderie.

The lady I turn out lights with has a sure-fire comeback for smarties who coax her beyond her depth in scientific knowledge. She stops them in their tracks by widening her eyes and murmuring, "Look, Mac, I don't understand the telephone so don't expect me to understand THAT!"

Speaking of frustration, you have the income tax chore all neatly tied up and ready for the mailman when you remember you forgot to say anything about an item which automatically would trip you up if you didn't get a new blank and start all over again from scratch. That's frustration.

Thanks to Art Buchwald for noting the similarity between what is happening to our militarists in Vietnam and what happened to Gen. Custer, who also was sure he was "holding the enemy's feet to the fire," in the ill-chosen words of Everett McKinley Dirksen of Illinois.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Facing The Truth

This isn't the first time the United States has found itself enmeshed in a war thousands of miles away which can affect its future security and destiny.

Nor is it the first time superficial criticism, unfamiliarty with the true signficance of our government's action and exhibitions of political partisanship have made difficult here at home the formulation of a constructive policy.

What America needs most in the Asian crisis is unity among its own people and a greater display of friendship and positive action by the many nations abroad whch have not yet come to realize the Vietnamese situation is a world problem.

EVENTS OF the last few days have dramatized the fact Vietnam's troubles are not going to be solved simply by military action within its own borders, though the need for an offensive strategy has been accentuated. Likewise, talk of "peace negotiations" has proved fruitless.

The main responsibility lies with sponsors of the banditry who have openly admitted their status as belligerents.

Moscow has sent billions of dollars of war supplies, and Peking has aided conspirators and infiltrators, upon whom blame for the conduct of the guerrilla war in Vietnam rests. Tied in with the whole situation are North Korean raids on South Korea.

The United States has pleaded in vain with the Unted Nations. That organization today is frustrated.

The small nations cast a majority vote and could change the whole face of things, but they fear the antagonism of the Communist regimes with their far-flung power to subvert and overthrow local governments. So the free countries will have to unite and in a concerted way compel both Moscow and Peking to halt their mischief-making.

This does not mean merely use of military force in a border war. It means recognition at last that economic measures can become a powerful influence in shaping the course of hostile governments.

The United States can form a new group of allies and call for support first of a worldwde economic blockade of North Vietnam, then, if necessary, a cut-off of all trade with Communist countries directly or indirectly supportng the war in Southeast Asia.

Despite the sacrifices which 500,000 Americans in our armed servces in Vietnam are called upon to make, there is no blockade by sea in the waters surrounding the battle region. A new international alliance could demand abstinence from the war by the Russians and Red Chinese, or else impose drastic restrictions on trade between the free world and the major countries on the Communist side.

THE LATTER co-manage the highly organized system of guerrilla warfare which is challenging the United States and its allies in Vietnam.

This could eventually require the declaration of "a state of war" so as to make lawful interception at sea of merchant ships carrying to North Vietnam supplies of a military nature or products from which munitions can be made.

If the United States did outline such a policy in public after enlisting the help of free countries from all parts of the world, it is possible Peking and Moscow would soon begin to extricate themselves from the Vietnam dilemma.

One thing is clear. The United States cannot retreat and ignore the part that Communist governments are playing in the buildup of North Vietnamese forces. Not only are the troops of this country and its allies being killed, but tens of thousands of Vietnamese civilians are being victimized.

If ever there were a basis for intervention by the United Nations — such as happened when "peacekeeping" task forces were sent into Africa — the Vietnam situation affords such a case.

If the Unted Nations fails, this will call for the creation of a new international alliance. Otherwise, all of Asia and perhaps the people of other continents as well will be subjected to guerrilla savagery.

2 Big Blazes Up Fire Loss At Wellsville

Wellsville's fire loss during 1967 totaled more than $170,000—boosted by major blazes at the Wesco Manufacturing Co. and the Wellsville Feed Co.

The figures were presented Wellsville Council Monday night in the annual report submitted by Fire Chief Robert Lewis.

The $170,455 damage total included $91,580 to buildings and $75,875 to contents.

Lewis said 125 calls were answered by the department, most during the winter, with a high of 15 in December. Alarms tapered off during the summer, he pointed out, with a low of three in August.

About 75 per cent of the calls came between noon and midnight, with heating appliances the major cause, the report said.

Included in the report were suggestions and recommendations to improve the fire departments capability and efficiency. Lewis suggested stricter building practices be implemented and that efforts be made "to improve the firefighting facilities and abilities."

2 Big Blazes Up Fire Loss At Wellsville

Wellsville's fire loss during 1967 totaled more than $170,000—boosted by major blazes at the Wesco Manufacturing Co. and the Wellsville Feed Co.

The figures were presented Wellsville Council Monday night in the annual report submitted by Fire Chief Robert Lewis.

The $170,455 damage total included $91,580 to buildings and $75,875 to contents.

Lewis said 125 calls were answered by the department, most during the winter, with a high of 15 in December. Alarms tapered off during the summer, he pointed out, with a low of three in August.

About 75 per cent of the calls came between noon and midnight, with heating appliances the major cause, the report said.

Included in the report were suggestions and recommendations to improve the fire departments capability and efficiency. Lewis suggested stricter building practices be implemented and that efforts be made "to improve the firefighting facilities and abilities."

Traffic Cases Bring Fines

LISBON — Charles B. Vermillion of LaCroft Ave., East Liverpool, and Jerry E. Childress of Lisbon received identical sentences Tuesday in Columbiana County Southwest Court when they pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Judge J. L. MacDonald fined them $200 and costs each, sentenced them to three days in jail and suspended their operator's license for 90 days.

Ronald D. Norris of Minerva RD 2 was fined $15 and costs for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Eight of 14 drivers cited for speeding pleaded guilty yesterday and six forfeited appearance bonds.

The court noted that the speeding cases resulted from radar and Ohio state patrol activity on Route 45 north of Lisbon in a 45-mile-an-hour area. This stretch was reduced to a 45-mile limit by the director of highways on petition of residents along the highway and has been in effect for five or six years, Judge MacDonald said.

Fined were Delvin Freshour, Weirton, $25; Dorhman F. Treadway of 347 E. Grant St., East Liverpool; Thomas H. Miller, Uniontown, Ohio; Charles J. Yatchum and Roger L. McCauley, both of Cleveland, and Thomas J. Eckenroe, Amsterdam, $15 each, and Patricia K. Dold, Alliance, $10. Eckenroe also was fined $10 for defective brakes.

Forfeiting $20 appearance bonds were Richard E. Cusick, Lisbon RD 2; Donald E. Kiernan and John T. Leighliter, both of Mentor; Robert A. Kuhn, Streetsboro; Robert W. Russell, Wooster, and Patsy M. Hendricks, Toledo.

Gosney Attacks Plans For Use Of Arter Building

LEETONIA — Two Republican county commissioners "evidently are thinking of political payoffs" in negotiating to rent space for county offices in the Arter Building at Lisbon which is scheduled for remodeling by "three prominent Republicans," Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, charged Tuesday night.

Gosney spoke to the village Democratic Women's Club at a meeting in the O.S.I. Hall.

The Arter Building, noted as the birthplace of Marcus A. Hanna, is scheduled "to be renovated for space" for use of county offices, Gosney said. He added that the party "also is thinking of moving its headquarters there."

"That building is falling down now," Gosney asserted. "Why should the county spend money for rent. The commissioners should buy a building for the county or build an annex to the Courthouse if space is needed. If the Arter Building is such a good deal, why didn't they buy it themselves and renovate it?"

Roy Allen, Democratic candidate for state representative, also speaking last night, urged members of the women's club to actively support President Johnson "during these trying times."

Allen pointed out he is an alternate - at - large to the Democratic convention in August and is supporting Johnson's renomination.

"The President has acted with measured restraint and yet firmness in handling of foreign affairs since assuming office in 1963," Allen said. "Vietnam is a frustrating dilemma that no one, including the administration, is pleased with, but the serious presidential candidates, including the peace candidates, have not offered workable alternatives other than more of the same or to cut and run," Allen said.

"Don't forget that the crises in Asia and the Mid East have overshadowed his domestic accomplishments," Allen added.

Utility Property Figures Posted

The total value of public utility personal and real estate property in Columbiana County in 1967 was $49,115,160, according to the Ohio Department of Taxation, Division of Public Utilities Taxes.

The amount listed for each category follows:

Electric light, $15,479,480; rural electric light, $60,100; natural gas, $8,695,750; pipeline, $6,354,330; water works, $38,880; steam, $10,551,710; telephone, $7,930,790; telegraph, $1,860, and express, $2,260.

In Jefferson County the total valuation is $154,190,620. The breakdown is electric light, $122,784,580; rural electric light, $149,030; natural gas $4,007,110; pipeline $272,040; steam, $19,258,490; telephone, $7,696,130; telegraph $11,130 and express, $12,110.

New Loan Program Set In Vocational Classes

East Liverpool High School students were informed today of a new program through which funds may be obtained for a vocational education.

Carl Pelini, assistant superintendent, said the students were presented information on the National Vocational Student Loan Insurance program, a system similar to the Guaranteed Loan Program for college students.

Any student who has been accepted for enrollment in an eligible vocational school may apply for a guaranteed loan.

There is no age limit and the student does not have to be a high school graduate or even an elementary school graduate, Pelini said. This means the program is open to anyone interested in advancing his or her education through vocational training.

On the other hand, the applicant may be a college graduate or a college dropout. The applicant only has to show he will benefit from the vocational program.

Students usually are eligible for up to $1,000 per year. There are 5,000 or more schools in the nation eligble to participate in the program.

Students borrow money from banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, insurance companies or similar commercial institutions which have established their eligibility to become lenders.

A student whose adjusted family income is less than $15,000 a year can obtain a loan and the federal government will pay up to 6 per cent a year on the unpaid principal while he is in school and 3 per cent on the unpaid principal during the repayment period. Students repay the money over a period of from three to six years, with deferment for service in the armed forces or the Peace Corps.

Plans Advanced By 'Playrites' At Local Meeting

Sue Smith of 948 Ambrose Ave. was named corresponding secretary when the Ceramic Playrites met Tuesday night in the Siff building on Market St.

A report of the nominating committee was given by Ken Riddle of Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville, chairman. Officers and directors will be elected at the next meeting, James Graham, co-director, said.

A list of individual specialties will be compiled for each member, but Graham pointed out all members will have an opportunity to participate in all phases of the theater.

Plans were advanced to attend the production of "The Odd Couple" at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Beaver Falls, Feb. 17. Robert Lackner of Darlington, a member, said that the play will run throughout February. Lackner also belongs to the group producing the play in Beaver Falls.

Several one-act plays will be selected for rehearsal and production at a meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Siff Building, Graham said. Refreshments will be served. Any area resident interested in the theater is invited to attend.

Appointment Expected To Fill Vacancy

Three received high scores in the Civil Service examination for patrolmen at Midland.

They are Louis DiCiccio of 541 Penn Ave., 97.54; James DiTullio of 60 Midland Ave., 96.54, and Peter Kohl of 575 Virginia Ave., 94.31.

Others tested, and their grades, were: William Vinovich Jr. of 45-C Midland Heights, 83.03; Mario Ulizio of 852 Virginia Ave., 74.8; Nick Vuckovich of 33 Park Pl., 71.98; Robert Love of 125 4th St., 71.66; Ben Underwood of S. 8th St., 63.74; Willie Vaughn of 323 Penn Ave., 56.92, and Art Vaughn of 512 Beaver Ave., 56.6.

The tests were administered by the Police Civil Service Commission — Raymond Stowitzky, chairman, John Phillips and William Vinovich Sr.

A police committee, including Councilman Raymond Presutti, chairman, Mayor Eli G. Corak and Police Chief Edward J. Stefl, will hire a patrolman to fill a vacancy created by the advancement of David D. Jakes from patrolman to sergeant following the retirement Jan. 28 of Sgt. Joseph H. McLean.

In all probability, a spokesman said, the man hired will come from the three top scorers in the test.

The five largest states in area are Alaska, Texas, California, Montana and New Mexico.

Traffic Cases Bring Fines

LISBON — Charles B. Vermillion of LaCroft Ave., East Liverpool, and Jerry E. Childress of Lisbon received identical sentences Tuesday in Columbiana County Southwest Court when they pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Judge J. L. MacDonald fined them $200 and costs each, sentenced them to three days in jail and suspended their operator's license for 90 days.

Ronald D. Norris of Minerva RD 2 was fined $15 and costs for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Eight of 14 drivers cited for speeding pleaded guilty yesterday and six forfeited appearance bonds.

The court noted that the speeding cases resulted from radar and Ohio state patrol activity on Route 45 north of Lisbon in a 45-mile-an-hour area. This stretch was reduced to a 45-mile limit by the director of highways on petition of residents along the highway and has been in effect for five or six years, Judge MacDonald said.

Fined were Delvin Freshour, Weirton, $25; Dorhman F. Treadway of 347 E. Grant St., East Liverpool; Thomas H. Miller, Uniontown, Ohio; Charles J. Yatchum and Roger L. McCauley, both of Cleveland, and Thomas J. Eckenroe, Amsterdam, $15 each, and Patricia K. Dold, Alliance, $10. Eckenroe also was fined $10 for defective brakes.

Forfeiting $20 appearance bonds were Richard E. Cusick, Lisbon RD 2; Donald E. Kiernan and John T. Leighliter, both of Mentor; Robert A. Kuhn, Streetsboro; Robert W. Russell, Wooster, and Patsy M. Hendricks, Toledo.

Gosney Attacks Plans For Use Of Arter Building

LEETONIA — Two Republican county commissioners "evidently are thinking of political payoffs" in negotiating to rent space for county offices in the Arter Building at Lisbon which is scheduled for remodeling by "three prominent Republicans," Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, charged Tuesday night.

Gosney spoke to the village Democratic Women's Club at a meeting in the O.S.I. Hall.

The Arter Building, noted as the birthplace of Marcus A. Hanna, is scheduled "to be renovated for space" for use of county offices, Gosney said. He added that the party "also is thinking of moving its headquarters there."

"That building is falling down now," Gosney asserted. "Why should the county spend money for rent. The commissioners should buy a building for the county or build an annex to the Courthouse if space is needed. If the Arter Building is such a good deal, why didn't they buy it themselves and renovate it?"

Roy Allen, Democratic candidate for state representative, also speaking last night, urged members of the women's club to actively support President Johnson "during these trying times."

Allen pointed out he is an alternate - at - large to the Democratic convention in August and is supporting Johnson's renomination.

"The President has acted with measured restraint and yet firmness in handling of foreign affairs since assuming office in 1963," Allen said. "Vietnam is a frustrating dilemma that no one, including the administration, is pleased with, but the serious presidential candidates, including the peace candidates, have not offered workable alternatives other than more of the same or to cut and run," Allen said.

"Don't forget that the crises in Asia and the Mid East have overshadowed his domestic accomplishments," Allen added.

Utility Property Figures Posted

The total value of public utility personal and real estate property in Columbiana County in 1967 was $49,115,180, according to the Ohio Department of Taxation, Division of Public Utilities Taxes.

In Jefferson County the total valuation is $154,190,620. The breakdown is electric light, $122,784,580; rural electric light, $149,030; natural gas $4,007,110; pipeline $272,040; steam, $19,258,490; telephone, $7,696,130; telegraph $11,130 and express, $12,110.

New Loan Program Set In Vocational Classes

East Liverpool High School students were informed today of a new program through which funds may be obtained for a vocational education.

Carl Pelini, assistant superintendent, said the students were presented information on the National Vocational Student Loan Insurance program, a system similar to the Guaranteed Loan Program for college students.

Any student who has been accepted for enrollment in an eligible vocational school may apply for a guaranteed loan.

There is no age limit and the student does not have to be a high school graduate or even an elementary school graduate, Pelini said. This means the program is open to anyone interested in advancing his or her education through vocational training.

On the other hand, the applicant may be a college graduate or a college dropout. The applicant only has to show he will benefit from the vocational program.

Students usually are eligible for up to $1,000 per year. There are 5,000 or more schools in the nation eligble to participate in the program.

Students borrow money from banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, insurance companies or similar commercial institutions which have established their eligibility to become lenders.

A student whose adjusted family income is less than $15,000 a year can obtain a loan and the federal government will pay up to 6 per cent a year on the unpaid principal while he is in school and 3 per cent on the unpaid principal during the repayment period. Students repay the money over a period of from three to six years, with deferment for service in the armed forces or the Peace Corps.

Plans Advanced By 'Playrites' At Local Meeting

Sue Smith of 948 Ambrose Ave. was named corresponding secretary when the Ceramic Playrites met Tuesday night in the Siff building on Market St.

A list of individual specialties will be compiled for each member, but Graham pointed out all members will have an opportunity to participate in all phases of the theater.

Plans were advanced to attend the production of "The Odd Couple" at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Beaver Falls, Feb. 17. Robert Lackner of Darlington, a member, said that the play will run throughout February. Lackner also belongs to the group producing the play in Beaver Falls.

Several one-act plays will be selected for rehearsal and production at a meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Siff Building, Graham said. Refreshments will be served. Any area resident interested in the theater is invited to attend.

Appointment Expected To Fill Vacancy

Three received high scores in the Civil Service examination for patrolmen at Midland.

They are Louis DiCiccio of 541 Penn Ave., 97.54; James DiTullio of 60 Midland Ave., 96.54, and Peter Kohl of 575 Virginia Ave., 94.31.

Others tested, and their grades, were: William Vinovich Jr. of 45-C Midland Heights, 83.03; Mario Ulizio of 852 Virginia Ave., 74.8; Nick Vuckovich of 33 Park Pl., 71.98; Robert Love of 125 4th St., 71.66; Ben Underwood of S. 8th St., 63.74; Willie Vaughn of 323 Penn Ave., 56.92, and Art Vaughn of 512 Beaver Ave., 56.6.

The tests were administered by the Police Civil Service Commission — Raymond Stowitzky, chairman, John Phillips and William Vinovich Sr.

A police committee, including Councilman Raymond Presutti, chairman, Mayor Eli G. Corak and Police Chief Edward J. Stefl, will hire a patrolman to fill a vacancy created by the advancement of David D. Jakes from patrolman to sergeant following the retirement Jan. 28 of Sgt. Joseph H. McLean.

In all probability, a spokesman said, the man hired will come from the three top scorers in the test.

The five largest states in area are Alaska, Texas, California, Montana and New Mexico.

A 22-year-old area woman was booked into city jail early today on two charges after she allegedly bit Lt. Paul A. Burson on the left hand in a struggle following her arrest.

Mrs. Susan Digman of Rogers RD 1 was arraigned this morning before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on charges of intoxication and "wilfully resisting, obstructing or abusing" a police officer.

The officer was treated at City Hospital at 2:50 a. m. for abrasions of the right hand.

Burson said the incident that led to the arrest began at 1:46 a. m. when he was in a restaurant on the Diamond and Mrs. Digman pursued a man into the place, brandishing a beer bottle. Burson halted the woman and ordered her to leave, he told the judge. She was placed under arrest when she hurled the bottle onto the street, smashing it, he related.

Burson said he was bitten by Mrs. Digman during a struggle as he and Patrolmen Charles Coen and James Buckley were escorting her to the police station.

"She cursed us for 45 minutes before she finally went to sleep" in a cell, he added.

The judge continued Mrs. Digman's hearing until Thursday and said he wishes to talk with her parents in the meantime.

Federal Grant Sought

Rodent Control Program Eyed For Hancock Areas

A rodent control program for Lawrenceville, the upper end of Chester, where industries are located, and the pottery area of Newell, along with several other locations in Hancock County, would be forthcoming if a federal grant is authorized for the Hancock County Health Department.

Dr. James E. Fisher, health officer, said above areas, along with the river bank sections at Waterford Park and New Cumberland, Weirton industrial plants areas, Marland Heights Rd., Cove Rd. Weirton Heights, Weircrest, North Weirton, Harmon Creek through Weirton and the Weir Ave. areas are locales where rodents exist in sufficient numbers to warrant extermination.

The health department will seek between $15,000 and $20,000 from the state for the program, which would include a director independent of the present department personnel.

Fisher reported the money would be obtained from the federally - financed $40 million fund, of which $20 million has been distributed to the state for local participation in rodent extermination drives.

After the money is obtained, he noted, the department also would consult with an area pest control agency in an effort to best use the funds available.

The application for funds was approved during a meeting of the Board of Health Tuesday in New Cumberland.

The action was taken after members received a report of a survey conducted by sanitarians Al Knabb and Glen Montgomery.

According to the report, the areas listed are those needing primary attention.

In other action, Mrs. Barbara Hinerman of Weirton, was appointed part - time laboratory technician. She attended Bethany College for two years and has been employed at West Virginia University hospital and Weirton General Hospital.

Negotiations At Standstill In Rail Tieup

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Negotiations are at a standstill and so are most of the trains of the Missouri Pacific, Texas & Pacific, and Seaboard Coast railroads.

The strike by the International Brotherhood of Trainmen began Monday night against MOPAC and its subsidiary, Texas & Pacific, and spread to Seaboard Tuesday. The issue: How many men does it take to run a train?

Nearly 50,000 employes on the three lines could be affected by the strike. There was no indication of how many were observing the picket lines, although MOPAC spokesmen said most of its 23,500 employes refused to cross the lines.

MOPAC's 12-state system serves portions of the Midwest. Southwest and South. Seaboard operates in six southeastern and southern states.

After the strike started, MOPAC posted notices saying the company has the right to determine the size of crews. Harry Hammer, a public relations officer for MOPAC, said he understood these other railroads posted similar notices: Seaboard, Boston & Maine, Chesapeake & Ohio, Union Pacific, Southern & Gulf, and the Mobile & Ohio.

Another Hearing Waited

Zoning Group Approves Regulations For Airport

The zoning commission for the Columbiana County airport to be constructed in Madison and St. Clair townships signed the zoning regulations Tuesday night.

Thirteen persons attended a preliminary public hearing at the Ohio Valley Gas building at Glenmoor. Richard Mattern of Glenmoor, chairman, presided.

He said there were no objections raised by those present—residents of Madison, St. Clair, Liverpool and Yellow Creek Townships.

The 13-page regulations were delivered this morning to the County Commissioners — the airport zoning board. The Commissioners will set up another public hearing before considering the regulations for adoption.

Regulations restrict the height of structures and objects of natural growth within the hazard area of the airport, create various zones, define terms used, include an airport zoning map, provide for enforcement and the imposing of penalties and establish an airport zoning board of appeals.

Serving with Mattern of the Commission were Robert Simms of Bell School Rd., a St. Clair Township trustee, and George Dunn, a Madison Township trustee.

Other officials present last night were Vincent Laneve of East Liverpool, president of the County Airport Authority, and two authority members — County Commissioner James W. Boyd of East Liverpool and Vaughn McMorrow of Wellsville.

The new airport, for which the state has provided $100,000 and federal funds are allotted, will be built at the site of the Swaney Airport.

Negotiations At Standstill In Rail Tieup

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Negotiations are at a standstill and so are most of the trains of the Missouri Pacific, Texas & Pacific, and Seaboard Coast railroads.

The strike by the International Brotherhood of Trainmen began Monday night against MOPAC and its subsidiary, Texas & Pacific, and spread to Seaboard Tuesday. The issue: How many men does it take to run a train?

Nearly 50,000 employes on the three lines could be affected by the strike. There was no indication of how many were observing the picket lines, although MOPAC spokesmen said most of its 23,500 employes refused to cross the lines.

MOPAC's 12-state system serves portions of the Midwest, Southwest and South. Seaboard operates in six southeastern and southern states.

After the strike started, MOPAC posted notices saying the company has the right to determine the size of crews. Harry Hammer, a public relations officer for MOPAC, said he understood these other railroads posted similar notices: Seaboard, Boston & Maine, Chesapeake & Ohio, Union Pacific, Southern & Gulf, and the Mobile & Ohio.

U.S. Destroyer Stuck On Rocks Off Greece

RHODES, Greece (AP) — The U.S. destroyer Bache stuck fast on the rocks off Rhodes today, and the U.S. Navy said she was badly holed and apparently "split from stem to stern."

The 2,500-ton 6th Fleet warship dragged anchor and went aground Tuesday, driven by hurricane force winds and high seas. The weather subsided today, and a flotilla assembled to help the Bache.

Rear Adm. V. G. Lambert arrived from Crete with an 11-man investigatng team.

Another Hearing Waited

Zoning Group Approves Regulations For Airport

The zoning commission for the Columbiana County airport to be constructed in Madison and St. Clair townships signed the zoning regulations Tuesday night.

Thirteen persons attended a preliminary public hearing at the Ohio Valley Gas building at Glenmoor. Richard Mattern of Glenmoor, chairman, presided.

He said there were no objections raised by those present—residents of Madison, St. Clair, Liverpool and Yellow Creek Townships.

The 13-page regulations were delivered this morning to the County Commissioners — the airport zoning board. The Commissioners will set up another public hearing before considering the regulations for adoption.

Regulations restrict the height of structures and objects of natural growth within the hazard area of the airport, create various zones, define terms used, include an airport zoning map, provide for enforcement and the imposing of penalties and establish an airport zoning board of appeals.

Serving with Mattern of the Commission were Robert Simms of Bell School Rd., a St. Clair Township trustee, and George Dunn, a Madison Township trustee.

Other officials present last night were Vincent Laneve of East Liverpool, president of the County Airport Authority, and two authority members — County Commissioner James W. Boyd of East Liverpool and Vaughn McMorrow of Wellsville.

The new airport, for which the state has provided $100,000 and federal funds are allotted, will be built at the site of the Swaney Airport.

Jefferson Union Falls By 73-46

Special To The Review

Beaver Local broke a Toronto stranglehold on the Buckeye Border Conference basketball championship last night, clinching the title with a 73-46 win at Jefferson Union.

The Beavers are now 8-0 in league play, 2½ games ahead with two left. Toronto had won the title every year since the league was formed, eight years ago.

Rex Campbell, who has increased his scoring output lately, led the winners with 24, but Dave Mason was right behind with 23. This pair also gave the Beavers a big edge on the boards, as Mason grabbed 20 rebounds and Campbell 16. Campbell grabbed 14 off the offensive board, and got many of his points on follow-up shots. He had 18 markers at halftime.

Jim Irvine had 15 and Ron Pytash 12 for the Yellowjackets, who gave the visitors a stiff fight for the first half, trailing only 29-25 at intermission. But Beaver Local Coach Lloyd Stockdale switched from a man-to-man defense to a 1-3-1 zone defense to start the second half and Carl Firm's team made three quick turnovers and the Beavers were off and running. Mason got 12 points in the third period as the visitors rolled up a 24-8 advantage and coasted the rest of the way.

Overall Beaver Local is now 14-2, while Jefferson Union is now 7-9 overall and 5-4 in league play.

In the reserve game Jefferson Union won 55-49, as Mark Wyand had 14 and Blanton 13 for the winners and Dan Myers 13 for the losers.

Golden Bears Win 68-58

Southern Scares Oak Glen

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Southern Local lost its 17th straight game last night, but not before giving Oak Glen a stiff battle on the Golden Bears' floor.

The West Virginia club led 36-18 in the second period, but Southern rallied to cut the margin to 42-39 in the third period before Oak Glen finally pulled away in the last 3½ minutes to win 68-58.

Bob Starkey's team is now 8-7. The winners got a lift from each starter at a different place in the game. Jim Carnes was high with 20 points, Perry (Biff) Stanley had 17, John Roach 12, and Steve Logston 10.

Rob Carter of Southern took game scoring honors with 21, Frank Francis had 14 and Jay Clapsadle 13. Francis grabbed 19 rebounds, as Southern controlled the boards 54-44. George Thompson added 11 grabs, while Roach's 11 was high for the winners. Southern's problem was turnovers, as the Indians committed 23, 18 in the first half, while Oak Glen committed 10.

"The turnovers killed us", Southern coach Al Girone agreed, "but these kids are only sophomores, and make sophomore mistakes. "Girone noted that the team had a good attitude despite not winning any games. Of the starting five, Clapsadle is a senior, the other four sophomores.

In the first period Oak Glen hit 11 of 22 shots, as Dan Crago scored the first two baskets. Stanley, moving well under the basket, scored 10 points, and Roach, Carnes and Logston were hitting from outside. From 7-5 the score moved rapidly to 26-10 and then to 36-18 before the Indians started to come back. Clapsadle threw in a half-court shot just as the half ended and Southern hit 47 per cent in the third period to 19 per cent by Oak Glen. It was still a close game at 48-45 early in the fourth quarter when Logston hit a long shot. With it 50-46 Roach made two quick baskets, and then with it 58-52 with 3:30 left Carnes and Logston began to find the mark again with their long range shots and Southern got no closer than 10 the rest of the way.

For the game Oak Glen shot 37 per cent to 38 per cent for the losers, but got 14 more shots because of the turnovers.

In the reserve game, two free throws by Terry Boyd with 13 seconds left iced a 46-42 Oak Glen win. The game was close all the way until the last period, when the home team led 44-36 with two minutes to go, but Southern got to 44-42 with a minute left. An Indian fast break misfired, Oak Glen missed a shot, but Southern turned the ball over without a shot with 23 seconds left and then had a foul.

Joe Algazino and Steve Staley had 11 each to lead the winners, while Bob Smith had 10 for the losers. Pete Horosko had 10 rebounds for Oak Glen, Tim Leek nine to lead Southern.

Peg Fleming Takes Lead In Skating

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Peggy Fleming, the lithe U.S. figure skating queen from Colorado Springs, Colo., opened her bid for an Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Winter Games today in championship form, taking command after the first of five compulsory figures.

Miss Fleming, the 19-year-old world champion, took a 12-point lead over East Germany's Gabrielle Seyfert with a score of 166.4 in the first of two school figures to be skated today. The remaining three compulsory figures are scheduled for Thursday, with the free skating final on Saturday.

Beatrix Schuba of Austria was third with 153.2 points, followed by Hana Maskova of Czechoslovakia, the European champion, with 148.4, and 19-year-old Albertina Noyes of Arlington, Mass., with 146.0.

Miss Fleming began her drive for the vacant Olympic title with a double stroke of luck. She drew a favorable starting number, No. 18, in the 32-girl field from 15 nations. And the five figures drawn for the competition were exactly the same as those with which she won the 1968 U.S. womens title.

Peggy's main rivals, Miss Hanskova and East Germany's Gabriele Seyfert, drew the 21st and 16th starting positions, respectively.

Jefferson Union Falls By 73-46

Special To The Review

Beaver Local broke a Toronto stranglehold on the Buckeye Border Conference basketball championship last night, clinching the title with a 73-46 win at Jefferson Union.

The Beavers are now 8-0 in league play, 2½ games ahead with two left. Toronto had won the title every year since the league was formed, eight years ago.

Rex Campbell, who has increased his scoring output lately, led the winners with 24, but Dave Mason was right behind with 23. This pair also gave the Beavers a big edge on the boards, as Mason grabbed 20 rebounds and Campbell 16. Campbell grabbed 14 off the offensive board, and got many of his points on follow-up shots. He had 18 markers at halftime.

Jim Irvine had 15 and Ron Pytash 12 for the Yellowjackets, who gave the visitors a stiff fight for the first half, trailing only 29-25 at intermission. But Beaver Local Coach Lloyd Stockdale switched from a man-to-man defense to a 1-3-1 zone defense to start the second half and Carl Firm's team made three quick turnovers and the Beavers were off and running. Mason got 12 points in the third period as the visitors rolled up a 24-8 advantage and coasted the rest of the way.

Overall Beaver Local is now 14-2, while Jefferson Union is now 7-9 overall and 5-4 in league play.

In the reserve game Jefferson Union won 55-49, as Mark Wyand had 14 and Blanton 13 for the winners and Dan Myers 13 for the losers.

Peden Sets Record, Rams Lose At Crafton

South Sides hopes for a Section 17 championship suffered a severe jolt Tuesday night as the Rams lost to Crafton 88-76 on the Cougars' floor, despite a record - breaking performance by Ron Peden.

South Side is now in a triple tie for the league lead with a 5-2 mark, the same as Crafton and Center. The Rams, 10-6 overall, go to Center Friday and Crafton also has to visit the Trojans' court. Crafton is 8-5 overall.

Peden threw in 39 points, breaking the school record of 34 set by his brother Ken Peden two years ago. Dan Hartell added 15, but Crafton had too many guns on their small court.

Butch Knetz racked up 34 points, Jack Walters had 24 and Carl Stewart 13.

South Side had many turnovers in the first half, and fell behind 40-26. The Rams finally rallied, getting to within eight points with 1:10 left, but could come no closer. Peden grabbed 17 rebounds and Hartzell 15.

Crafton easily won the reserve game, 94-54, as Charles Backus had 32. Doug Williamson got 14 for the losers.

Golden Bears Win 68-58

Southern Scares Oak Glen

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Southern Local lost its 17th straight game last night, but not before giving Oak Glen a stiff battle on the Golden Bears' floor.

The West Virginia club led 36-18 in the second period, but Southern rallied to cut the margin to 42-39 in the third period before Oak Glen finally pulled away in the last 3½ minutes to win 68-58.

Bob Starkey's team is now 8-7. The winners got a lift from each starter at a different place in the game. Jim Carnes was high with 20 points, Perry (Biff) Stanley had 17, John Roach 12, and Steve Logston 10.

Rob Carter of Southern took game scoring honors with 21, Frank Francis had 14 and Jay Clapsadle 13. Francis grabbed 19 rebounds, as Southern controlled the boards 54-44. George Thompson added 11 grabs, while Roach's 11 was high for the winners. Southern's problem was turnovers, as the Indians committed 23, 18 in the first half, while Oak Glen committed 10.

"The turnovers killed us", Southern coach Al Girone agreed, "but these kids are only sophomores, and make sophomore mistakes. "Girone noted that the team had a good attitude despite not winning any games. Of the starting five, Clapsadle is a senior, the other four sophomores.

In the first period Oak Glen hit 11 of 22 shots, as Dan Crago scored the first two baskets. Stanley, moving well under the basket, scored 10 points, and Roach, Carnes and Logston were hitting from outside. From 7-5 the score moved rapidly to 26-10 and then to 36-18 before the Indians started to come back. Clapsadle threw in a half-court shot just as the half ended and Southern hit 47 per cent in the third period to 19 per cent by Oak Glen. It was still a close game at 48-45 early in the fourth quarter when Logston hit a long shot. With it 50-46 Roach made two quick baskets, and then with it 58-52 with 3:30 left Carnes and Logston began to find the mark again with their long range shots and Southern got no closer than 10 the rest of the way.

For the game Oak Glen shot 37 per cent to 38 per cent for the losers, but got 14 more shots because of the turnovers.

In the reserve game, two free throws by Terry Boyd with 13 seconds left iced a 46-42 Oak Glen win. The game was close all the way until the last period, when the home team led 44-36 with two minutes to go, but Southern got to 44-42 with a minute left. An Indian fast break misfired, Oak Glen missed a shot, but Southern turned the ball over without a shot with 23 seconds left and then had a foul.

Joe Algazino and Steve Staley had 11 each to lead the winners, while Bob Smith had 10 for the losers. Pete Horosko had 10 rebounds for Oak Glen, Tim Leek nine to lead Southern.

Peg Fleming Takes Lead In Skating

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Peggy Fleming, the lithe U.S. figure skating queen from Colorado Springs, Colo., opened her bid for an Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Winter Games today in championship form, taking command after the first of five compulsory figures.

Miss Fleming, the 19-year-old world champion, took a 12-point lead over East Germany's Gabrielle Seyfert with a score of 166.4 in the first of two school figures to be skated today. The remaining three compulsory figures are scheduled for Thursday, with the free skating final on Saturday.

Beatrix Schuba of Austria was third with 153.2 points, followed by Hana Maskova of Czechoslovakia, the European champion, with 148.4, and 19-year-old Albertina Noyes of Arlington, Mass., with 146.0.

Miss Fleming began her drive for the vacant Olympic title with a double stroke of luck. She drew a favorable starting number, No. 18, in the 32-girl field from 15 nations. And the five figures drawn for the competition were exactly the same as those with which she won the 1968 U.S. womens title.

Peggy's main rivals, Miss Hanskova and East Germany's Gabriele Seyfert, drew the 31st and 16th starting positions, respectively.

Kenyon, Wooster Win, Gain

By The Associated Press

Kenyon and Wooster, two of the four teams pressing leading Otterbein in the Ohio Conference basketball race, kept their hopes high Tuesday night with important road victories.

Both made their records 6-2 in the league, Kenyon beating Muskingum 78-65 and Wooster downing Oberlin 74 - 65. Otterbein boasts an 8-1 record, followed by Denison, 8-2, and Baldwin-Wallace, 7-2.

In a contest between OC second division teams, Marietta beat Capital 67-62, while Baldwin-Wallace stretched its home court winning streak to 21 with an 81-78 victory over nonleague Akron.

Elsewhere, Kent State beat Pittsburgh 83-73, Ashland made its record 17-1 with a 56-37 victory over Slippery Rock, Goshen beat Defiance 96-76, Youngstown beat Alliance 103-73, Wilmington routed Centre 106-79 and Walsh nipped Cedarville 73-69.

Muskingum tried to slow it down against high-scoring Kenyon but succeeded only in keeping the Lords below their season average. John Dunlop had 25 points, John Rinka 24 for the winners, while Ken Gandola had 21 for the losers.

Wooster was behind with four minutes left, but Rich Thompson, who totaled 26 points, broke a 58-58 tie with a field goal and the Scots breezed in. Al Wellington's 20 points led Otherlin.

Mark Ulrey and Ray Nelson had 16 points apiece for Marietta, which beat Capital with a strong second half. Baldwin-Wallace, which started its home winning streak two years ago with a victory over Akron, was led by Terry Allerton with 20 points Tuesday night.

Roy Crite had 24 for the losing Zips.

Kent, which is earning a spoiler reputation in the Mid-American Conference, traveled outside the circuit and scored a relatively easy victory at Pitt. The Flashes made a flashy 22 straight foul shots and 29 of 33 in the game. Tom Lagodich led the scorers with 15 points.

Ashland, which now owns the best record among Ohio college teams, was led by John Schetzsle's 18 points. Defiance had the state's best record, but fell to 17-2 with the convincing defeat at the hands of Goshen, which got a big 43-point performance from Keith Springer. The top Yellow Jacket scorer was Denny Moore, with 18 points.

Frank Fitz scored 32 points and grabbed 26 rebounds in Youngstown's win, Wilmington scored 63 points in the second half to overwhelm Centre, and Joe Eaton's 20 points paced Walsh to its victory over Cedarville.

Muskies Beat Bucs; Pipers Fall To Pacers

By The Associated Press

The Minnesota Muskies have hooked onto a share of first place in the Eastern Division of the American Basketball League with seconds to spare.

Skip Thoren pulled up the Muskies when he tossed them the hook, a shot with four seconds remaining that lifted Minnesota to a 112-110 victory over New Orleans Tuesday night.

Pittsburgh lost its sole grip on the top spot when Indiana surprisingly pulled down the Pipers 113-100.

Minnesota and Pittsburgh now are virtually tied, although the Pipers still hang onto a lead of percentage points.

In the only other game, Oakland upended Dallas 99-98.

Thoren's eight-foot shot, giving Minnesota its 14th straight home court victory, came after Doug Moe had tied the game for the Buccaneers with a three-point goal with 37 seconds left.

Moe, who finished with 38 points, had led the Bucs to a 51-36 lead and a 59-48 spread at halftime before Minnesota shook lose for an 87-84 three-quarter margin.

Les Hunter had 24 points for the Muskies. Thoren ended with 12.

Indiana, entering its game 10 lengths behind Pittsburgh and playing on the road, stunned the Pipers with an easy victory. Fred Lewis, who scored 26 points, put the Pacers ahead 26-24 with a layup and the lead steadily grew to 19.

Lewis had ample help from Bob Netolicky, who had 22 points and 20 rebounds as they offset Jim Washington's 31 points and 26 rebounds for Pittsburgh.

On the West Coast, Oakland extended its winning streak to three—its longest of the season—in beating Dallas for the first time in four meetings. The Chapparals also absorbed their fourth straight setback.

Wes Bialosuknia spearheaded Oakland's second-half surge after the Oaks trailed 57-46 at halftime. Bialosuknia's jump shot tied the score 90-all, and after Oakland went ahead, Dallas Player-Coach Cliff Hagan deadlocked it again with 3:01 left.

N. Carolina Rips Virginia

By The Associated Press

North Carolina's Tar Heels, enjoying one of their best seasons, set what is believed to be a national collegiate basketball record with a total of 34 assists in beating Virginia.

The Tar Heels, third ranked nationally to Houston and UCLA in The Associated Press poll, accomplished the feat Tuesday night as they routed the Cavaliers 108-64 for their 13th straight victory.

"We must have set a record with our assists," said Dean Smith, North Carolina coach, after a capacity crowd of 8,800 at Chapel Hill saw the Tar Heels spot Virginia a 12-6 lead, then rally to win easily.

"We got beat by a good team," commented Bill Gibson, the Virginia coach, after the Tar Heels had upped their over-all record to 15-1 led by Rusty Clark's 19 points and 16 rebounds. Norman Carmichael led Virginia with 18 points and 10 rebounds.

Army, which hasn't made The AP Top Ten so far, and Duke, which dropped out of the select group this week, featured the other games.

The West Point Cadets strengthened their chances for a bid to either the NCAA or NIT postseason tournaments by whipping Rutgers 50-41 for their 10th in a row and 16-3 over-all.

Bill Schutsky's 23 points paced the Cadets to their home court triumph.

Duke made it 11 straight at home by whipping Maryland 85-64 at Durham behind Mike Lewis' 32 points and 16 rebounds. The Blue Devils now are 12-3 for the season.

Illinois kept on the heels of Ohio State in the Big Ten by beating Wisconsin on the road 68-60. Villanova also won on the road by downing Detroit 63-55 behind 30 points from Johnny Jones.

Kenyon, Wooster Win, Gain

By The Associated Press

Kenyon and Wooster, two of the four teams pressing leading Otterbein in the Ohio Conference basketball race, kept their hopes high Tuesday night with important road victories.

Both made their records 6-2 in the league, Kenyon beating Muskingum 78-65 and Wooster downing Oberlin 74 - 65. Otterbein boasts an 8-1 record, followed by Denison, 8-2, and Baldwin-Wallace, 7-2.

In a contest between OC second division teams, Marietta beat Capital 67-62, while Baldwin-Wallace stretched its home court winning streak to 21 with an 81-78 victory over nonleague Akron.

Elsewhere, Kent State beat Pittsburgh 83-73, Ashland made its record 17-1 with a 56-37 victory over Slippery Rock, Goshen beat Defiance 96-76, Youngstown beat Alliance 103-73, Wilmington routed Centre 106-79 and Walsh nipped Cedarville 73-69.

Muskingum tried to slow it down against high-scoring Kenyon but succeeded only in keeping the Lords below their season average. John Dunlop had 25 points, John Rinka 24 for the winners, while Ken Gandola had 21 for the losers.

Wooster was behind with four minutes left, but Rich Thompson, who totaled 26 points, broke a 59-59 tie with a field goal and the Scots breezed in. Al Wellington's 20 points led Otherlin.

Mark Ulrey and Ray Nelson had 16 points apiece for Marietta, which beat Capital with a strong second half. Baldwin-Wallace, which started its home winning streak two years ago with a victory over Akron, was led by Terry Allerton with 20 points Tuesday night.

Roy Crite had 24 for the losing Zips.

Kent, which is earning a spoiler reputation in the Mid-American Conference, traveled outside the circuit and scored a relatively easy victory at Pitt. The Flashes made a flashy 22 straight foul shots and 29 of 33 in the game. Tom Lagodich led the scorers with 15 points.

Ashland, which now owns the best record among Ohio college teams, was led by John Schetzsle's 18 points. Defiance had the state's best record, but fell to 17-2 with the convincing defeat at the hands of Goshen, which got a big 43-point performance from Keith Springer. The top Yellow Jacket scorer was Denny Moore, with 18 points.

Frank Fitz scored 32 points and grabbed 26 rebounds in Youngstown's win, Wilmington scored 63 points in the second half to overwhelm Centre, and Joe Eaton's 20 points paced Walsh to its victory over Cedarville.

U.S. Loses Olympic Hockey Opener

Trademark Crisis Resolved

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Competition picked up momentum today at the 10th Winter Olympic Games after an opening day devoted mostly to ceremonial pomp and the settlement of a troublesome ski squabble.

French President Charles de Gaulle presided at the colorful ceremonies which officially opened the Games Tuesday. A crowd of some 60,000 fans jammed the Olympic Stadium to watch the festivities.

Hockey dominated the first day's athletic activities. In the opening game, the United States bowed to Czechoslovakia 5-1. In other games, Russia crushed Finland 8-0 and Canada defeated West Germany 6-1.

But the most significant opening day development was the compromise reached between the International Ski Federation and the International Olympic Committee in the ski-trademark controversy.

The IOC had clashed with the Ski Federation when the latter ruled that competitors would be allowed to use skis carrying manufacturer's names on them. The Federation argued that covering the names with wax was impractical.

The two bodies decided that the skiers would be allowed to wear skis with company names but would not be allowed to show the trademarks at the end of a run.

The IOC had opposed the trademarks because it felt they would infringe on the strict amateurism of these games.

The squabble had threatened to eliminate skiing competition as a regular Olympic event and the settlement emerged out of an emergency meeting of the IOC Congress.

Marc Hodler of Switzerland, president of the Ski Federation, said any skier ignoring the newly adopted rule would be disqualified. He said competitors would have to leave their equipment in a special area before posing for pictures.

In Tuesday's hockey, the United States fell behind early before getting a tying goal by Doug Volmar of Minneapolis. Then Czechoslovakia scored two goals in each of the last two periods to win it.

Today's schedule listed compulsory figures in women's figure skating, the men's 30-kilometer cross-country ski race, men's downhill non-stop training run and the first two heats in the two-man bobsled competition as well as hockey.

Billy Kidd of Stowe, Vt., Jere Elliott, Steamboat Springs, Colo., Dennis McCoy, Bishop, Calif., and James Barrows, Steamboat Springs, Colo., were entered in the men's downhill.

Entered in the two-man bobsled event were Paul Lamey, Manchester, N.H., and Robert Huscher, New York, in one bob, and Howard Clifton, Elnora, N.Y., and Michael Luce, Keene, N.Y., in a second sled.

Knicks' Late Surge Downs St. Louis Hawks

By The Associated Press

The New York Knicks, who waited almost half a season before righting themselves with Red Holzman, waited another three quarters Tuesday night before finally overturning the St. Louis Hawks.

A 10-point splurge at the start of the fourth quarter did the trick, turning a precarious six-point lead into a 16-point bulge and the Knicks pounded the Hawks 121-100 for their first victory over St. Louis this season in four games.

The game was the second half of a National Basketball Association doubleheader at Madison Square Garden, following Detroit's 120-93 rout over San Diego.

In other games, touring San Francisco slipped by Chicago 126-124 in overtime and Los Angeles bombarded Cincinnati 146-102 on the West Coast.

The Knicks lost twice in overtime to St. Louis before Holzman replaced Dick McGuire as their coach with the team floundering under a 15-23 record.

The Hawks beat the Knicks again before New York turned the tables and ran its record under Holzman to 14-8.

Eight straight points put the Knicks ahead to stay 48-43 at the half as St. Louis managed to hit only 28.6 per cent from the field against the ball-hawking New Yorkers.

It still was close until Dick Barnett hit baskets around scores by Walt Bellamy and Bill Bradley and Willis Reed dropped another for a convincing 87-71 lead.

Barnett went on to score 11 of his 21 points in the quarter and Reed nine of his 17 as the Knicks hammered home 44 points. Bellamy also finished with 21. Len Wilkens led St. Louis with 25.

Detroit also took advantage of some cold shooting to hand the Rockets their ninth straight defeat. The Pistons grabbed a 55-36 halftime lead as the Rockets hit only 25.4 per cent from the field. San Diego never got closer than 16 after that as Dave Bing hit 35 points for Detroit.

San Francisco, using 39 points by Fred Hetzel and 30 by Clyde Lee, came from 17 points behind in the third quarter to deal the Bulls their ninth loss in a row.

Jeff Mullins finally tied the game at 106 and sent the game into overtime at 110-all with a basket with 10 seconds left. His three points broke a 120-120 deadlock and Lee added seven points in the overtime period.

Jerry Sloan had 33 points and Bob Boozer 29 for Chicago.

Los Angeles took a 67-58 lead at intermission and then crushed Cincinnati with Oscar Robertson sitting out with an injured leg. Elgin Baylor led the charge and finished with 26 points for the Lakers. Jerry West added 24.

Pro Grid Winnings Announced

NEW YORK (AP) — The Green Bay Packers received $7,950.96 each and the Dallas Cowboys got $5,878.90 each for full shares of the Dec. 31 National Football League championship game.

The official receipts, announced today by Art Modell, NFL president, sent the Packers' post-season pay close to $25,000 a man.

They got $15,000 for winning the Super Bowl game, plus a day's pay (1-14 of their season salary) for beating Los Angeles in the divisional playoff, unofficially estimated at about $1,500. They also will get a day's pay for next summer's College All-Star game in Chicago.

Green Bay voted 51 shares and Dallas 45 shares for the game won by the Packers 21-17 in 13-below zero weather. The winning share was the third highest in league history, exceeded by Green Bay's $9,813.63 in 1966 and Cleveland's $8,052 in 1964. Dallas' share was the second best for losers, topped only by the $6,527.85 they collected last year in their own Cotton Bowl.

Gross receipts were $2,582,578, including $2 million for television and radio rights. The NFL Bert Bell Player Benefit Plan received $575,000 and $425,000 went into pension plans for coaches and other club personnel.

The NFL estimated that each Packer who has been with Green Bay during Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as coach, earned an estimated $85,000 in postseason money. Players with Green Bay the last two years earned $47,764.59 each, plus three extra game salaries.

Paul Brown Confident Of Bengals

CINCINNATI (AP)—"Deep inside, I think we're going to do a little better than we admit," Cincinnati Bengals coach-general manager Paul Broen told over 1,000 potential fans Monday.

The gathering jammed the Hotel Sheraton - Gibson's Roof Garden to get a glimpse of members of the newest club of the American Football League.

Getting a firsthand view were Gov. James A. Rhodes and Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio.

Rhodes praised Brown, saying, "He will have exciting football here. It's a new spirit, a new day, a new horizon and a new Cincinnati."

The three received standing ovations from the crowd attending the "Meet the Bengals" luncheon, sponsored by the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Quarterback John Stofa, formerly with the Miami Dolphins, said:

"We have one of the finest head coaches, top assistants with fine techniques and a nucleus of players who will make us contenders."

Robertson Gains On Dave Bing

NEW YORK (AP) — Hot-shooting Oscar Robertson, slowed down by early season injuries, has not let them set him back in National Basketball Association scoring statistics.

The Big O of Cincinnati took the runner-up spot behind Detroit's Dave Bing with 178 points in five games last week and retained his big lead in average points a game with 30.5. He has 1,401 total points, 129 behind Bing, who is averaging 27.8.

Robertson also took the free throw percentage lead from Flynn Robinson of Chicago at 87.5 per cent. Robinson fell to eighth as Dave Gambee of San Diego grabbed second.

Robertson remains second to Len Wilkens of St. Louis in assists, but leads in per game average with 9.7. Wilkens has 487 total, an 8.3 average, and Robertson has 445.

Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia stills holds big leads in the other two categories, field goal percentage, 5793 per cent, and rebounds, 1,353 or 24.2 a game.

Italian Wins 30-Kilometer Skiing Race

AUTRANS, France (AP) — Italy's Franco Nones outraced favored Scandinavian skiers in the men's 30-kilometer cross-country test today and captured the first gold medal in the 1968 Winter Olympic Games.

Nones, leading from start to finish, sped through the demanding, 18.6 mile overland course in one hour, 35 minutes, 38.2 seconds to beat Norwegian ace Odd Martinsen and defending champion Eero Maentyranta of Finland. Martinsen was second in 1:36.28.9, Maentyranta third in 1:36.55.3.

A four-man American contingent, led by Mike Gallagher of Killington, Vt., was far back in the pack.

Gallagher, a 26-year-old insurance man, finished in 27th position with a 1:41:58.2 clocking. Mike Elliott of Durango, Colo., was 29th in 1:42:22.6; Charles Kellogg of Boston 51st in 1:50:03.7, and Jon Lufkin of Rumford, Maine, 55th in 1:51:21.2.

U.S. Loses Olympic Hockey Opener

Trademark Crisis Resolved

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Competition picked up momentum today at the 10th Winter Olympic Games after an opening day devoted mostly to ceremonial pomp and the settlement of a troublesome ski squabble.

French President Charles de Gaulle presided at the colorful ceremonies which officially opened the Games Tuesday. A crowd of some 60,000 fans jammed the Olympic Stadium to watch the festivities.

Hockey dominated the first day's athletic activities. In the opening game, the United States bowed to Czechoslovakia 5-1. In other games, Russia crushed Finland 8-0 and Canada defeated West Germany 6-1.

But the most significant opening day development was the compromise reached between the International Ski Federation and the International Olympic Committee in the ski-trademark controversy.

The IOC had clashed with the Ski Federation when the latter ruled that competitors would be allowed to use skis carrying manufacturer's names on them. The Federation argued that covering the names with wax was impractical.

The two bodies decided that the skiers would be allowed to wear skis with company names but would not be allowed to show the trademarks at the end of a run.

The IOC had opposed the trademarks because it felt they would infringe on the strict amateurism of these games.

The squabble had threatened to eliminate skiing competition as a regular Olympic event and the settlement emerged out of an emergency meeting of the IOC Congress.

Marc Hodler of Switzerland, president of the Ski Federation, said any skier ignoring the newly adopted rule would be disqualified. He said competitors would have to leave their equipment in a special area before posing for pictures.

In Tuesday's hockey, the United States fell behind early before getting a tying goal by Doug Volmar of Minneapolis. Then Czechoslovakia scored two goals in each of the last two periods to win it.

Today's schedule listed compulsory figures in women's figure skating, the men's 30-kilometer cross-country ski race, men's downhill non-stop training run and the first two heats in the two-man bobsled competition as well as hockey.

Billy Kidd of Stowe, Vt., Jere Elliott, Steamboat Springs, Colo., Dennis McCoy, Bishop, Calif., and James Barrows, Steamboat Springs, Colo., were entered in the men's downhill.

Entered in the two-man bobsled event were Paul Lamey, Manchester, N.H., and Robert Huscher, New York, in one bob, and Howard Clifton, Elnora, N.Y., and Michael Luce, Keene, N.Y., in a second sled.

Knicks' Late Surge Downs St. Louis Hawks

By The Associated Press

The New York Knicks, who waited almost half a season before righting themselves with Red Holzman, waited another three quarters Tuesday night before finally overturning the St. Louis Hawks.

A 10-point splurge at the start of the fourth quarter did the trick, turning a precarious six-point lead into a 16-point bulge and the Knicks pounded the Hawks 121-100 for their first victory over St. Louis this season in four games.

The game was the second half of a National Basketball Association doubleheader at Madison Square Garden, following Detroit's 120-93 rout over San Diego.

In other games, touring San Francisco slipped by Chicago 126-124 in overtime and Los Angeles bombarded Cincinnati 146-102 on the West Coast.

The Knicks lost twice in overtime to St. Louis before Holzman replaced Dick McGuire as their coach with the team floundering under a 15-23 record.

The Hawks beat the Knicks again before New York turned the tables and ran its record under Holzman to 14-8.

Eight straight points put the Knicks ahead to stay 48-43 at the half as St. Louis managed to hit only 28.6 per cent from the field against the ball-hawking New Yorkers.

It still was close until Dick Barnett hit baskets around scores by Walt Bellamy and Bill Bradley and Willis Reed dropped another for a convincing 87-71 lead.

Barnett went on to score 11 of his 21 points in the quarter and Reed nine of his 17 as the Knicks hammered home 44 points. Bellamy also finished with 21. Len Wilkens led St. Louis with 25.

Detroit also took advantage of some cold shooting to hand the Rockets their ninth straight defeat. The Pistons grabbed a 55-36 halftime lead as the Rockets hit only 25.4 per cent from the field. San Diego never got closer than 16 after that as Dave Bing hit 35 points for Detroit.

San Francisco, using 39 points by Fred Hetzel and 30 by Clyde Lee, came from 17 points behind in the third quarter to deal the Bulls their ninth loss in a row.

Jeff Mullins finally tied the game at 106 and sent the game into overtime at 110-all with a basket with 10 seconds left. His three points broke a 120-120 deadlock and Lee added seven points in the overtime period.

Jerry Sloan had 33 points and Bob Boozer 29 for Chicago.

Los Angeles took a 67-58 lead at intermission and then crushed Cincinnati with Oscar Robertson sitting out with an injured leg. Elgin Baylor led the charge and finished with 26 points for the Lakers. Jerry West added 24.

Pro Grid Winnings Announced

NEW YORK (AP) — The Green Bay Packers received $7,950.96 each and the Dallas Cowboys got $5,878.90 each for full shares of the Dec. 31 National Football League championship game.

The official receipts, announced today by Art Modell, NFL president, sent the Packers' post-season pay close to $25,000 a man.

They got $15,000 for winning the Super Bowl game, plus a day's pay (1-14 of their season salary) for beating Los Angeles in the divisional playoff, unofficially estimated at about $1,500. They also will get a day's pay for next summer's College All-Star game in Chicago.

Green Bay voted 51 shares and Dallas 45 shares for the game won by the Packers 21-17 in 13-below zero weather. The winning share was the third highest in league history, exceeded by Green Bay's $9,813.63 in 1966 and Cleveland's $8,052 in 1964. Dallas' share was the second best for losers, topped only by the $6,527.85 they collected last year in their own Cotton Bowl.

Gross receipts were $2,582,578, including $2 million for television and radio rights. The NFL Bert Bell Player Benefit Plan received $575,000 and $425,000 went into pension plans for coaches and other club personnel.

The NFL estimated that each Packer who has been with Green Bay during Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as coach, earned an estimated $85,000 in postseason money. Players with Green Bay the last two years earned $47,764.59 each, plus three extra game salaries.

Paul Brown Confident Of Bengals

CINCINNATI (AP)—"Deep inside, I think we're going to do a little better than we admit," Cincinnati Bengals coach-general manager Paul Broen told over 1,000 potential fans Monday.

The gathering jammed the Hotel Sheraton - Gibson's Roof Garden to get a glimpse of members of the newest club of the American Football League.

Getting a firsthand view were Gov. James A. Rhodes and Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio.

Rhodes praised Brown, saying, "He will have exciting football here. It's a new spirit, a new day, a new horizon and a new Cincinnati."

The three received standing ovations from the crowd attending the "Meet the Bengals" luncheon, sponsored by the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Quarterback John Stofa, formerly with the Miami Dolphins, said:

"We have one of the finest head coaches, top assistants with fine techniques and a nucleus of players who will make us contenders."

Robertson Gains On Dave Bing

NEW YORK (AP) — Hot-shooting Oscar Robertson, slowed down by early season injuries, has not let them set him back in National Basketball Association scoring statistics.

The Big O of Cincinnati took the runner-up spot behind Detroit's Dave Bing with 178 points in five games last week and retained his big lead in average points a game with 30.5. He has 1,401 total points, 129 behind Bing, who is averaging 27.8.

Robertson also took the free throw percentage lead from Flynn Robinson of Chicago at 87.5 per cent. Robinson fell to eighth as Dave Gambee of San Diego grabbed second.

Robertson remains second to Len Wilkens of St. Louis in assists, but leads in per game average with 9.7. Wilkens has 487 total, an 8.3 average, and Robertson has 445.

Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia stills holds big leads in the other two categories, field goal percentage, 5793 per cent, and rebounds, 1,353 or 24.2 a game.

Italian Wins 30-Kilometer Skiing Race

AUTRANS, France (AP) — Italy's Franco Nones outraced favored Scandinavian skiers in the men's 30-kilometer cross-country test today and captured the first gold medal in the 1968 Winter Olympic Games.

Nones, leading from start to finish, sped through the demanding, 18.6 mile overland course in one hour, 35 minutes, 38.2 seconds to beat Norwegian ace Odd Martinsen and defending champion Eero Maentyranta of Finland. Martinsen was second in 1:36.28.9, Maentyranta third in 1:36.55.3.

A four-man American contingent, led by Mike Gallagher of Killington, Vt., was far back in the pack.

Gallagher, a 26-year-old insurance man, finished in 27th position with a 1:41:58.2 clocking. Mike Elliott of Durango, Colo., was 29th in 1:42:22.6; Charles Kellogg of Boston 51st in 1:50:03.7, and Jon Lufkin of Rumford, Maine, 55th in 1:51:21.2.

Court Continues Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until March 1 in a case in which Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bishop of 255 Drain St. are accused of failure to comply with an order of a deputy state fire marshal to raze or repair a building which they own on Drain St. The affidavit was signed by Fire Chief Alfred Van-Dyne. Solicitor J. Michael Kapp moved for the continuance. He said there is a question about actual ownership of the property since Bishop filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition.

Faces Driving Charge

Warren Urie of Broadway, Wellsville, was cited for driving while under the influence of alcohol early this morning by Wellsville police. Urie requested a trial by jury and will be given a hearing later at Lisbon.

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance in a case in which Hobert Yeager of the Y. O. Rd. is accused of failure to yield the right-of-way as a result of a traffic mishap Friday on Dresden Ave. He instructed Yeager, who said he has no insurance, to consult with Jack Hoodski of Curry St., who alleged his 1968 auto was damaged heavily in the collision.

Pueblo

posed his question as Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., speculated the administration is preparing to apologize to North Korea for violating the sea limit in hopes of getting back the ship and survivors of her 83-man crew.

Top administration officials have said the Pueblo maintained radio silence from Jan. 10-21, before the North Koreans captured her Jan. 23, so it cannot be said for sure she did not violate the Communist nation's sea limit.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen told a Tuesday news conference: "There was some monitoring done and there are some tapes. I think most everything was known."

But Dirksen, who attended White House briefings on the Pueblo affair, declined to amplify his statements further.

Mundt said he is asking the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to add a question about radar coverage to a list of queries on 20 general areas of the Pueblo incident already submited to the State Department.

Mundt said it seems logical that if American intelligence knows the position of Soviet intelligence ships in all parts of the world—as he said it claims—it could keep track of one of its own electronic vessels without radio communications.

Sen. Milton R. Young, R-N.D., said in a separate interview the same question is likely to be explored at a select committee's briefing by the Central Intelligence Agency on the Pueblo matter.

Absolute zero is the point at which, theoretically, all molecular action ceases to exist.

along Highway Nine, leading the infantrymen through the camp's minefields and three lines of barbed wire.

The camp's garrison—300-400 South Vietnamese and Montagnard irregulars and their American advisers—took cover in their bunkers, and North Vietnamese sprayed the bunkers with flamethrowers to drive the defenders back from rifle and machine-gun ports.

U.S. headquarters said radio contact was lost with the Americans in the camp at 3:10 a.m. but was re-established at 4:20.

U.S. Marine artillery at Khe Sanh fired tons of shells almost on top of the camp after the Green Berets called for close in support. Air Force and Marine fighter-bombers raked the area with bombs, cannon and machineguns.

A U.S. spokesman said heavy contact continued through the night and diminished about 11 a.m., but some fighting continued. U.S. headquarters said radio contact was being maintained throughout the day.

South Vietnamese headquarters said the irregulars also were still holding out in the camp and were in radio communication with an observation plane.

Chester Club Briefed On Center, Recreation

Frank Moss, president of the East Liverpool Jaycees and an assistant football coach at East Liverpool High School, discussed the need for a community center and recreation program during a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

Moss said the current program is lacking in some areas for everyone from child to senior citizen and the Jaycees' objective is to establish a community recreation center with a paid recreation director who would perform the following duties: Have charge of schedules, coordinate groups, organize recreation programs, set up new programs, publish upcoming events, secure facilities and recruit recreation instructors.

Moss pointed out the services and all facilities would be for the use of residents in the tri-state area. He screened a film, "Community Physical Fitness."

He also talked to the group concerning the Citizens Scholarship Foundation. Oak Glen High School, members noted, recently received about 14 per cent of the scholarshp awards. The Chester club donates to "Dollars for Scholars" each year.

The club's March of Dimes night will be next Tuesday. Alvin Fineman, chairman, asked residents to turn on their porch lights.

A donation was authorized for the Oak Glen High School postprom party.

Guests included Donald Hood, Chester city clerk, and Sgt. Charles E. (Pete) Emmerling, formerly of the First National Bank and Federal Bureau of Investigation at Washington. He will leave this month for Army service in Vietnam.

Legion Posts Will Sponsor Speech Event

American Legion posts in the 1st District of West Virginia, which embraces Hancock, Brooke, Ohio, Marshall and Wetzel counties, have undertaken sponsorship of an American heritage contest in which sixth-graders may compete for personal and school recognition.

Lewis C. Carte of Wellsburg Post 34, has been named district contest chairman.

The project is the "Lincoln Elocution Contest" in which sixth graders will be judged for their recitations of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

The area contests will honor the 16th President's birthday, at public and parochial schools and Legion posts in the 1st District. Contestants will be judged on the basis of poise, elocution-diction and memory.

John A. Jones, of Weirton, department commander, said the contest is being promoted "in the cause of patriotism."

Under the contest rules, each school in an area determined by the various posts will conduct its own classroom competition, supervised by teachers. The room winners will vie for the school championship and school winners will compete at American Legion posts for the area championship.

The participating posts in the 1st District are naming contest chairmen to prepare for the competition which may be held either in February or early March.

Recorder Office Operations Set At $43,511 During 1965

LISBON — Operating costs of the Columbiana County recorder's office were $43,511 in 1965, the last full year of a three-year audit made by State Examiner Robert L. Hookey. The 1964 total was $40,795.

An analysis of the 1965 expenses shows $37,144 for salaries of recorder and employes; $1,980, stationery and supplies; $902, other expenses, and $3,485, records repair.

The salary of the recorder, set by state law, increased from $7,300 in 1964 to $9,400 in 1965.

Fees collected in 1964 and 1965, the two full years covered in the examination, totaled $32,379 and $32,522, respectively. They were paid into the county treasury.

The examiner said the recorder's cash book was "neatly and accurately kept" and a spot check of fees charged and collected disclosed no errors.

Hookey's report covered the period from March 10, 1963, through March 31, 1966. It will be available for public inspection beginning Thursday at the offices of the county auditor and the prosecuting attorney.

Gilligan Files For U.S. Senate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John J. Gilligan filed Tuesday as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, officially setting up a primary fight between him and incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche.

Gilligan has the backing of the Ohio Democratic party's Executive Committee, which spurned the 72-year-old Lausche for being too independent of party policy.

After filing 217 petitions bearing 4,683 signatures from 61 Ohio counties, Gilligan, a Cincinnati city councilman and former congressman, said his endorsement was the "resurrection of the Democratic party" in Ohio.

Gilligan predicted he would defeat Lausche, who is seeking a third Senate term. Lausche officially filed with the secretary of state Monday.

Recorder Office Operations Set At $43,511 During 1965

LISBON — Operating costs of the Columbiana County recorder's office were $43,511 in 1965, the last full year of a three-year audit made by State Examiner Robert L. Hookey. The 1964 total was $40,795.

An analysis of the 1965 expenses shows $37,144 for salaries of recorder and employes; $1,980, stationery and supplies; $902, other expenses, and $3,485, records repair.

The salary of the recorder, set by state law, increased from $7,300 in 1964 to $9,400 in 1965.

Fees collected in 1964 and 1965, the two full years covered in the examination, totaled $32,379 and $32,522, respectively. They were paid into the county treasury.

The examiner said the recorder's cash book was "neatly and accurately kept" and a spot check of fees charged and collected disclosed no errors.

Hookey's report covered the period from March 10, 1963, through March 31, 1966. It will be available for public inspection beginning Thursday at the offices of the county auditor and the prosecuting attorney.

The meeting was called by the Steubenville - Weirton Area Transportation Study (SWATS). It began at 10 a.m. in the Ohio Valley Gas Co. offices at Steubenville.

Gilligan Files For U.S. Senate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John J. Gilligan filed Tuesday as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, officially setting up a primary fight between him and incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche.

Gilligan has the backing of the Ohio Democratic party's Executive Committee, which spurned the 72-year-old Lausche for being too independent of party policy.

After filing 217 petitions bearing 4,683 signatures from 61 Ohio counties, Gilligan, a Cincinnati city councilman and former congressman, said his endorsement was the "resurection of the Democratic party" in Ohio.

Gilligan predicted he would defeat Lausche, who is seeking a third Senate term. Lausche officially filed with the secretary of state Monday.

Chester Club Briefed On Center, Recreation

Frank Moss, president of the East Liverpool Jaycees and an assistant football coach at East Liverpool High School, discussed the need for a community center and recreation program during a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

Moss said the current program is lacking in some areas for everyone from child to senior citizen and the Jaycees' objective is to establish a community recreation center with a paid recreation director who would perform the following duties: Have charge of schedules, coordinate groups, organize recreation programs, set up new programs, publish upcoming events, secure facilities and recruit recreation instructors.

Moss pointed out the services and all facilities would be for the use of residents in the tri-state area. He screened a film, "Community Physical Fitness."

He also talked to the group concerning the Citizens Scholarship Foundation. Oak Glen High School, members noted, recently received about 14 per cent of the scholarshp awards. The Chester club donates to "Dollars for Scholars" each year.

Several AID Officials Quit During Entertainment Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several officials of the Agency for International Development, the nation's foreign-aid agency, reportedly have resigned during a probe of alleged acceptance of entertainment from a U.S. contractor doing work for AID in Europe.

Sources said the contractor charged the government excessive fees and that claims are being filed on the excess amount.

Authorities declined comment on the case on the ground it has been referred to the Justice Department for prosecution.

Herbert J. Waters, a one-time top aide to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, said he helped instigate the probe and wholeheartedly supports it.

Waters, whose resignation is effective Feb. 15, is head of the war on hunger program. It was understood that earlier he had a job that involved some administrative responsibility for the program now being investigated. The White House announced his resignation last month.

Waters, an assistant to Humphrey when the vice president was a senator, said he decided last fall to return to private enterprise.

AID sources said the probe involves allegations that some of the agency's administrative personnel improperly accepted entertainment from a contractor who was refurbishing U.S. military surplus goods for use in foreign aid programs. The operation was centered in Antwerp, Belgium.

An AID spokesman declined to name those who resigned or the contractor.

Waters issued this statement:

"There is a pending investigation of an excess property contract. I helped instigate this investigation, and stand ready to assist AID at all times on this matter.

"Others in AID are responsible for this case, and I am not at liberty to discuss details of it.

"Since the reorganization of AID one year ago, excess property has not been my direct responsibility. However, I support wholeheartedly the action AID had taken and is taking to tighten and improve the supervision of the program."

Waters was assistant AID administrator for materials and resources before heading its newly established war on hunger office.

Hospital Credits Ex-City Resident With Grant Help

Efforts of a former city girl are credited with helping the Jewish Chronic Disease Hospital of Brooklyn, N. Y., to qualify for the first federal library grant in its history.

Miss Mary Buchheit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Buchheit of 234 W. 4th St., was cited for the effective organization of the hospital's library—a prerequisite for the federal grant of about $5,000 from the Department of Health Education and Welfare.

The hospital staff said Miss Buchheit also "widened the scope of the hospital's affiliation with the Medical Research Library of Brooklyn for interlibrary loans, Xerox reproductions of journal articles and general and library resources information services, without cost to the JCDH" since she was appointed director of the library in April 1967.

Miss Buchheit was born and raised in East Liverpool where she received her high school diploma in 1956. She attended Kent State University, where she majored in Library Science and Education.

Receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree in 1960, she started her master's work which is completed except for final approval of the thesis.

After she was graduated from Kent, Miss Buchheit went to work at the Dayton Public Library where she was employed for about 1½ years, then accepted a position at the Public Library in Brooklyn.

She had been employed at the Brooklyn Library about four years when she became director of the JCDH Library.

At Wellsville Meeting

Pension, Phones Occupy Council

State legislation which has taken the police and firemen's pension fund out of the hands of local government and lack of a direct-dial telephone system drew the attack of Wellsville Council at its meeting Monday night.

"Outrageous" and "impossible" was the general attitude toward the requirements of House Bill 756 which places the pension fund under state control.

The councilmen voted to send letters to Sen. John Longsworth, Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel and Franklin Kropp, executive director of the state police and firemen's pension fund board, pointing out that the assessments of $80,000 for the police and $62,000 for the firemen funds were impossible to meet.

—:—

THE LEGISLATORS also plan to send letters individually and called on other Wellsville residents to do likewise.

Glenn Mathess, chairman of the finance committee, explained the three-tenths mill levy already in effect will provide for part of the total, but said the balance would be impossible to meet.

Mathess also pointed out that the percentage would increase by 1 per cent per year for the next four years, then remain at 5 per cent.

In the remainder of his report, Mathess listed the items needed over and above those possible through the budgets of the police and fire departments.

Among needs listed for the police department were two extra policemen and a 40 per cent increase in wages. For the fire department, a general renovation of the station, plus coats, boots, a power saw and repairs at the lookout tower.

CORRESPONDENCE read by Clerk Andrew Lynn from Delmar T. O'Hara expressed the "inequities" of the Ohio Bell System in not providing a direct-dial system for Wellsville when surrounding communities have it.

Lloyd Rhodes, publisher of the Wellsville Press, said he had discussed the telephone situation with Ohio Bell officials in 1961 and they had said direct-dialing would be installed by 1964. Their reason for then not doing so was that there were not enough long - distance calls made from Wellsville to warrant installing the system, Rhodes added. "Even the present equipment is second - rate," he continued.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis commented that "on at least a dozen occasions this past year defective service prevented contact with the fire station which could have been disastrous in case of an emergency."

Lewis and Rhodes suggested a resolution to place the matter before the Public Utilities Commission.

At the suggestion of Councilman Nunzio Lombardozzi, Council decided to invite a representative of Ohio Bell to the next meeting before taking any PUC action.

In other business, Council acted on a request by William Daugherty to pass legislation opening bids for blacktop, salt, alum, lime, slag, coal and gas.

Mathess announced the new packer has arrived and is being serviced preparatory to being placed in use.

A request by Crit Smallwood of 2019 Danbury for removal of a car abandoned in a lot near his home was tabled pending clarification of the pertinent ordinance.

Complaints of no lights in the alley paralleling Clark and Chester Aves. between Aten Ave. and 15th St. and heavy trucks using side streets beteen Main St. and Clark Ave. were referred to committees.

Advance Payments Set In Feed Grain System

LISBON — Columbiana County farmers participating in the 1968 feed grain program are eligible for advance payments from the government.

They may apply for the advance at the time they sign to participate at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office on the Square.

J. Glenn Batts, county ASCS committee chairman, said the advance payment will be 50 per cent of the feed grain acreage diversion payments. Advance payments will not be made on wheat marketing certificates or on feed grain price support payments.

Under the feed grain program, diversion payments on the larger farms will be made on acreage withheld from corn production above the qualifying 20 per cent of the base. This additional diversion may total up to 50 per cent of the base or 25 acres, whichever is larger, Bates said.

The diversion payment rate per acre will be 45 per cent of the total local price support—the county loan rate plus the price support payment — times the yield. The total local price support in Columbiana County is $1.49 per bushel for corn. For the larger farms, no diversion payment will be made on the qualifying 20 per cent.

Special provisions continue to be available for small farms, Bates added. If the farm has a feed grain base of 25 acres or less, the diversion payment will be approximately 20 per cent of the total local support times the yield on the first 20 per cent of the base and at the regular 45 per cent payment rate on the remaining acreage diverted to conserving uses.

Producers with corn - grain sorghum bases up to 125 acres will have the option this year, as they did last year, of temporarily reducing their bases to 25 acres and being eligible for the small - farm provisions. Under these circumstances, feed grains cannot be planted on the farm if the grower is to remain eligible for program benefits.

Reds Fear Syrian Attack Of Israel

Arabs Seen Too Weak For War Without Aid

JERUSALEM (AP) — With Soviet officials expressing worry that the Syrians may attack Israel, Defense Minister Moshe Dayan declared Tuesday night that the Arabs are too weak to start another war without help from a big foreign power.

Dayan expressed the hope and belief that the Soviet Union would not encourage the Arabs to large-scale warfare, but he said Israel must reckon with all eventualities and keep its economy on a war footing.

He told a meeting sponsored by the Jerusalem Students Association, however, that despite Soviet replenishment of Arab arsenals and reorganization of the Arab armies, they have no chance now to defeat Israel on the battlefield.

In Moscow high-ranking Soviet sources said Tuesday that the Syrians might be preparing a desperate attack on Israel in April and that the Soviet government wants to stop them. But although the Syrians get their arms from the Soviets, they have repeatedly refused to hew to the Soviet line that political—not military—means should be used to regain Arab land lost to Israel in the six-day June war.

"When it comes to Israel, they don't listen to us," said one Soviet source.

Soviet officials said the Syrian hatred for Israel is so unreasoning that it could explode into suicidal attacks. They added that the Syrian leaders also loathe Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser so much that they might count another military failure a success if it led to Nasser's ouster.

Soviet leaders plan to continue spreading Russian influence in the Arab world by supplying weapons and strong political support. But if another war broke out, the Soviet sources said, Moscow would again stand aside to avoid risking a nuclear confrontation with the United States.

Syria has been fully resupplied by Moscow since the Arab defeat in June. Informants say Syria has received modern T55 Stalin tanks to replace its vintage armor and large numbers of MIG21 fighters and TU16 strike bombers. A Soviet submarine base has been built at Latakia, Syria's northern port, and Soviet ships have steamed into Latakia to unload missiles, tanks, artillery and warplanes for Syrian use.

On Jan. 19, Dayan said he believed Soviet troops had penetrated down to the operative level in the Syrian and Egyptian armies and were even manning artillery and antiaircraft guns.

"I surmise they are in there at the planning stage," the defense minister said, "'and if war comes, it will be their decision."

World's first commercial telephone exchange opened in New Haven, Conn., on Jan. 28, 1878.

Rockefeller, Percy Withdraw

4-Way GOP Race Seen In Wisconsin Primary

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A four-way Republican race appears likely in Wisconsin's April 2 presidential preference primary.

Six GOP candidates were chosen for the primary ballot by a nominating committee Tuesday. But within hours, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Illinois Sen. Charles Percy announced they would withdraw by filing disclaimers of 1968 presidential intentions.

On split votes, the committee rejected attempts to place the names of New York Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and former Gov. George Wallace of Alabama on the ballot under he Democratic label.

Rockefeller said his selection caused him "embarrassment" because he is supporting Michigan Gov. George Romney. Percy said he planned to "respectfully but firmly" withdraw.

Under Wisconsin's new primary law, a person named by the bipartisan committee can withdraw if he signs an affidavit declaring he does not intend to become a candidate.

If Rockefeller and Percy step aside, the four GOP candidates left on the primary ballot are—in order—Richard M. Nixon, California Gov. Ronald Reagan, Romney, and former Minnesota Gov. Harold Stassen.

Nixon, Romney and Stassen have launched campaigns in the Badger State.

Reagan, a favorite son candidate in California, indicated he would not have his name removed but would not campaign in Wisconsin.

The only two Democrats named for the primary were President Johnson and Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.

The committee will submit the names of the eight candidates, including Rockefeller and Percy, to the Wisconsin secretary of state Friday. The secretary will then officially notify the eight.

Disclaimers must be filed with the secretary by Feb. 29.

Any person not listed by the nominating committee who desires to run April 2 must obtain at least 1,000 signatures in each of the state's 10 congressional districts.

Assembly Authorized To Set Size Under Con-Con's Plan

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General Assembly would be authorized to set the membership of its two houses under a proposal awaiting final action of the Constitutional Convention.

The convention hammered out the wording of the proposal during a seven-hour session Tuesday, amending an earlier recommendation of its Legislative Apportionment Committee.

The committee had recommended that in rewriting sections of the constitution dealing with the legislature no change be made in the present House membership (203) and Senate membership (50).

There was some opposition to the committee's recommendations, chiefly from delegates who wanted to scale down the size of the House to anywhere from 100 to 200 members. The smaller—House advocates tried repeatedly to amend the committee proposal, but without success.

Finally, after two days of what one delegate called the "numbers game," the convention reached a compromise by accepting amendments offered by Delegates James Hook, D - Greene, and Gustave Amsterdam, D-Philadelphia.

Hook's amendment would allow the legislature to increase or decrease the membership of House or Senate. Amsterdam's amendment would require that the act take a two-thirds vote of the elected legislators.

Legislative apportionment is only one of four subjects before the convention, with recommendations on all scheduled to be placed on the ballot at the April 23 primary election.

The delegates still must debate proposed sections on the judiciary, local government and taxation and state finance between now and Feb. 29.

Patrol Cites 3 More On Bridge Overloads

The Ohio Highway Patrol cited three more truckers Tuesday night and early today on charges of exceeding the 2½-ton load limit on the Chester Bridge.

Samuel R. Grace, 21, of Greensburg, Pa., and Leonard J. Willochell, 33, of New Alexandria, Pa., each paid fines of $50 and costs after entering guilty pleas today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

John D. Vanzyll, 27, of Hudsonville, Mich., forfeited a 32.50 appearance bond on the same charge.

The patrol reported both Grace and Willochell were cited at 5:30 this morning. Each was driving a rig which weighed 6,000 pounds, according to the registration papers, and each was carrying a cargo, the patrol said.

Vanzyll was cited at 6:25 p.m. Tuesday, the patrol reported. He was driving an empty tractor-trailer rig. The registration slips showed the tractor weighed 14,710 pounds and the trailer weighed 11,750 pounds, the patrol reported.

5 In Family, Truck Driver Die In Crash

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)— A carpenter, his wife and three of their children were only two miles from home Tuesday when the pickup truck they were riding in smashed headon into a semitrailer tractor.

All were killed along with the semi driver in the fiery collision on a straight stretch of U.S. 30N about 1½ miles east of Williamstown.

by city ordinance. The residency requirement for firemen was reduced to one year.

The teacher pay increase and residency bills appear likely to be passed by the Senate and returned to the House for amendment concurrence.

If the House refuses to back down, then the bills will be sent to a joint conference committee.

The House today is expected to take final action on two water pollution bills designed to halt pollution of the Poctalico River by oil well drillers in Roane County.

In action Tuesday, the House approved a resolution to place a $350 million road bond issue before voters in November by a 90-7 vote. But the lower chamber refused to accept a Senate amendment to prohibit any of the funds from being used to purchase, enlarge or reconstruct the West Virginia Turnpike.

The $350 million amendment—if ratified by voters — would be used primarily to complete the Appalachian Highway program in West Virginia. The proposal has been endorsed by Gov. Hulett C. Smith.

aligned, now is comprised of Columbiana, Harrison, Jefferson, Carroll and Belmont counties and all except one township of Tuscarawas County. Monroe and Noble Counties were dropped in the redistricting.

Because of the realignment, congressional district candidates have been granted an extension until Feb. 19 to file their petitions. They include candidates for Congress, delegates to the GOP and Democratic National Conventions and state central committeemen and women of the two parties.

The Democratic party also filed yesterday a slate of two delegates and two alternates to run in the 19th District for the right to attend the Presidential nominating convention in Chicago. Four counties are represented in the proposed delegation.

Candidates for delegate are Maurice Rapport of 335 Thompson Ave. and Howard (Bud) Mercer of 157 Summit Ave. NE in New Philadelphia (Tuscarawas County). The aspirants for alternate are Robert Price of Wintersville RD 3 (Jefferson County) and James W. Inzetta of 118 Pine Ln., Barnesville (Belmont County).

firm was retained at $40,000 to inspectc the Chester Bridge, along with spans at Pomeroy and Steubenville. The inspection came in the wake of the collapse of the Point Pleasnt Bridge in whch more than 40 lost their lives Dec. 15.

THE REVIEW reported last week violation of the load limit by some truckers who were crossing the span in the early morning hours.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon, charged with enforcement of the ban, increased its spot checks and at least eight truckers have since been penalized in Municipal Court for having rigs exceeding the load limit.

The bridge maintenance section of the state highway department was to have erected the upright supports, the horizontal beams and large signs plus flasher lights.

The supports were set in, but further work was suspended until all the legal requirements for such a barrier could be worked out, a highway department spokesman said. He added he did not know when a decision would come to proceed with the project.

Patrol Cites 3 More On Bridge Overloads

The Ohio Highway Patrol cited three more truckers Tuesday night and early today on charges of exceeding the 2½-ton load limit on the Chester Bridge.

Samuel R. Grace, 21, of Greensburg, Pa., and Leonard J. Willochell, 33, of New Alexandria, Pa., each paid fines of $50 and costs after entering guilty pleas today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

John D. Vanzyll, 27, of Hudsonville, Mich., forfeited a 32.50 appearance bond on the same charge.

The patrol reported both Grace and Willochell were cited at 5:30 this morning. Each was driving a rig which weighed 6,000 pounds, according to the registration papers, and each was carrying a cargo, the patrol said.

Vanzyll was cited at 6:25 p.m. Tuesday, the patrol reported. He was driving an empty tractor-trailer rig. The registration slips showed the tractor weighed 14,710 pounds and the trailer weighed 11,750 pounds, the patrol reported.

5 In Family, Truck Driver Die In Crash

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)— A carpenter, his wife and three of their children were only two miles from home Tuesday when the pickup truck they were riding in smashed headon into a semitrailer tractor.

All were killed along with the semi driver in the fiery collision on a straight stretch of U.S. 30N about 1½ miles east of Williamstown.

The crash orphaned seven other children in the carpenter's family.

by city ordinance. The residency requirement for firemen was reduced to one year.

The teacher pay increase and residency bills appear likely to be passed by the Senate and returned to the House for amendment concurrence.

If the House refuses to back down, then the bills will be sent to a joint conference committee.

The House today is expected to take final action on two water pollution bills designed to halt pollution of the Pootalico River by oil well drillers in Roane County.

In action Tuesday, the House approved a resolution to place a $350 million road bond issue before voters in November by a 90-7 vote. But the lower chamber refused to accept a Senate amendment to prohibit any of the funds from being used to purchase, enlarge or reconstruct the West Virginia Turnpike.

The $350 million amendment—if ratified by voters — would be used primarily to complete the Appalachian Highway program in West Virginia. The proposal has been endorsed by Gov. Hulett C. Smith.

Because of the realignment, congressional district candidates have been granted an extension until Feb. 19 to file their petitions. They include candidates for Congress, delegates to the GOP and Democratic National Conventions and state central committeemen and women of the two parties.

The Democratic party also filed yesterday a slate of two delegates and two alternates to run in the 18th District for the right to attend the Presidential nominating convention in Chicago. Four counties are represented in the proposed delegation.

Candidates for delegate are Maurice Rapport of 335 Thompson Ave. and Howard (Bud) Mercer of 157 Summit Ave. NE in New Philadelphia (Tuscarawas County). Twenty-five women in the class will receive certificates in the program at 2:30 p. m. at the First Christian Church social rooms, Charles Boso, manager of the Bureau of Employment Services, announced.

Donald Robertson of the bureau's manpower development office at Columbus will be the speaker.

The project was held under the training act with the cooperation of the Community Action Committee and coordinated through the Wellsville School District, Boso said.

The class was held at Wellsville for the first three of the 15 weeks of the course and the remainder of the training was held for the aides at schools in Beaver Local, East Liverpool, Lisbon, Southern Local, Stanton Local and Wellsville.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR FOLKS:—I ran across one of the trickiest ideas the other day that ever bombarded a woman's brain . . .

You know when we have unexpected company drop in, we usually have to drag out a few canned vegetables such as carrots, green beans, peas, etc. in a hurry. Now here's what to do:

Don't rinse those cans out and for heavens sake, don't throw 'em away!

Because I had a dishwasher full of dirty dishes and no extra small bowls to put the leftover vegetables in, I spied those empty cans. They were on the counter with the labels still on them!

That's when it dawned on me!

I just put the leftover vegetables back into each can and put them directly into my refrigerator. You don't have to wash the can. Remember it's sterile.

These leftovers are especially good for mommies who don't eat a good meal at noon and for the little kiddies who need those extra vegetables. Sometimes we hesitate to open a new can just for lunch. Also they're good to feed pets to insure that they get their vitamins.

So don't ever throw away one serving of leftover vegetables. Just dump it back into that can! And since it's got that pretty, colored label on it, at least you see at a glance what is in it . . . because the picture is right there.

And, gals, does it save space in that refirgerator. Wow!

HELOISE.

P.S. After I poured the leftover vegetables back into the can, I added enough water to cover them. After all, it's going to take that to reheat it anyway.

DEAR HELOISE: I have read in your column several times about how to prevent aluminum strips on drainboards from making black marks on the front of your dress.

Well, I haven't tried any of them because I have a solution of my own. I just consider it a blessing in disguise! A reminder to hold in my tummy and stand up straight while I'm working at that drainboard.

By consciously "pulling in" several times a day, I'm tightening the mucles and improving my posture. And if I slip and slump, the thought of staining my dress is enough to make me straighten up.

THELMA TAYLOR.

Thelma, you really hit the "bulge". After a few decades and babies, we all need some "tummy-in" exercise. Eh?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you ever want to see what's on television and reach for your TV program, only to find it was thrown out with the newspaper?

Well, we solved that. Now we keep ours by itself under our couch cushion. That way it's always easy to find and doesn't get mixed with the rest of the newspaper to be discarded.

LORRAINE FEILING.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know liquid wax applied to wrought iron furniture occasionally will help prevent corrosion or rust?

I wax mine about three times a year and it stays looking nice.

MRS. G. E. FEIBEL.

DEAR HELOISE: I came up with a good trick of keeping the ice pick from always sticking into my fingers when I reach in the kitchen drawer.

I slide an ordinary plastic drinking straw over the ice pick, then cut it off so it is about an inch longer than the pick.

MODENA SMITH.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I prevent three of my pet grievances — shredded coconut drying out, marshmallows hardening and brown sugar hardening?

A. — By putting a slice of fresh bread in each of these containers and closing tightly, all moisture will be restored to the contents within a few days.

Q.—What can be done about condensation between house windows and storm windows?

A.—This can be reduced if the storm windows are installed at least an inch and a half away from the permanent windows. Storm windows should be tightly weather - stripped or gasketed to prevent air passage. And if the house windows are also sealed, with felt or rubber weatherstripping, condensation will not form between the two glass surfaces.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a college freshman and when I tell you I'm just barely making it, this is no exaggeration. I knew college was going to be rough but I didn't think it would take so much of my time.

I'm a little late with my psychology paper and I would certainly appreciate it if you would help me out. What I need is a rough draft, about 1,200 words. I'd like you to list the principal causes for the deterioration of morality in our society.

And please touch on the major problems of today's youth. Some authorities say the youth of today has more social pressures than the youth of 25 years ago. Please bring out this point.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart, Annie old girl. I knew you wouldn't let me down. You have a kind face. I'll bet you weren't bad looking in your day. — EIGHT BALL.

Dear Eight: So all you need is 1,200 words — sort of a rough draft? Are you sure you don't want me to write the paper and have it typed in finished form?

Look, Doll, every year about this time I get a few dozen requests from kids who would like me to do their work. I'll tell you what I tell the rest of them.

Nobody wrote my papers when I was in school and I'm not going to write papers for anyone else. Haul your carcass over to the library (Slippery Rock has a fine one) and get to work, Bub.

Keyboard Caper

Dear Ann: I'm a 12-year-old boy who used to be happy and normal until my mother decided I should be a great piano player. I have been taking lessons for eight months and I hate it. Music is supposed to bring happiness but it is ruining my life.

I've thought of calling our doctor and asking him which is healthier for a growing child — to be in a stuffy house practicing the piano or to be outside playing ball in the fresh air.

Somebody said that Erroll Garner still practices every day. If a great piano player like that has to practice every day after all the playing he has done, when does a person get good enough to relax? Please help me. — NO MOZART.

Dear No Mo: Erroll Garner doesn't practice to GET good. He practices to STAY GOOD. Keep beating those ivories, fella, even though you hate it. It's good discipline and one day you'll be glad your mother made you stick with it.

Planned Visits

Dear Ann: Every time you print a letter knocking "drop in" company I bless you for it. I notice, however, some readers do not agree with you.

I have just figured out the rationale of the people who love drop-in company. They are the ones who like to do things the easy way. After all, an invitation carries with it an obligation to be well groomed when you greet guests. One must have the house in order and refreshments on hand.

When people drop in, anything goes. Moreover, the day is yours till the moment they arrive. What if the house is a mess? "I was cleaning the basement — forgive the way I look. I haven't baked a thing this week but if you'd like a cup of coffee — with cream, I'm afraid . . ."

When I entertain people I do it properly and I don't need any excuses for goofing off. — NO COP-OUT.

Hancock Youth Fined On Shoplifting Charge

Albert D. Bragg, 18, of New Cumberland was found guilty of petty larceny in connection with a shoplifting charge at a hearing before County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine Monday.

Bragg was accused by Lester McElhaney, special officer, of taking shaving lotion and perfume valued at $2.35 from Hill's Department Store at Calcutta. He was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail, but $100 of the fine and the term were suspended.

For a good mixture for meat loaf, have pork shoulder ground and add it to ground beef. Use about half a pound of the pork to a couple of pounds of the beef.

School Plans Choral Group

Plans were made to form a high school choral group when the South Side-Beaver Jointure School Board met Monday night at Hookstown.

At the request of Andrew W. Campbell, principal, Mrs. Florence Kennedy, elementary music teacher, will organize the group.

George Russi, band director, was formerly responsible for all choral groups. He will assist Mrs. Kennedy.

The board approved a lease renewal and payment of $21,213 annual rental for the district's buildings which house kindergarten and library. The board's contract calls for three years rental, with an option to purchase, on the buildings.

The board will accept bids for band risers for the stage and for five electric typewriters, two adding machines, a duplicating machine and new drapes for the administrative sections of the elementary and high school buildings.

Mrs. Eris Morrow of Hookstown and Mrs. Delores Conkle of Georgetown RD 1 were employed as part-time cafeteria workers to replace Mrs. Doris Boyd and Mrs. Evelyn Geary, resigned. In addition, Mrs. Carol Floyd of Hookstown RD 1 also was employed to work part time.

Campbell will attend the National Secondary School Principals Convention Saturday through Feb. 14 at Atlantic City.

The South Side Parent-Teacher Association will use the cafeteria kitchen Feb. 24 for a Mardi Gras and annual smorgasbord dinner. The Band Boosters Club will hold its annual band banquet in the cafeteria either April 20 or April 27.

Cash And Checks Stolen At Paper

Thieves took about $80 in cash and two blank signed checks from the offices of the Hancock County Courier in New Cumberland late Sunday night or early Monday morning.

Police Chief William Webster said the theft was discovered by the owner, Mrs. Mary Lou Newburn, about 11 a.m. Monday. The Courier, located on Jefferson St., was entered through an east side door which was pried open.

Webster apprehended two juvenile boys Saturday afternoon at the Junior High School there and charged them with breaking and entering with intent to steal money.

They were caught in the school office by Charles Miller, principal.

The youths were taken before Squire John D. Herron and released to Juvenile Officer John Grossi.

Grossi ordered one youngster held in the Hancock County Jail and released the other in the custody of his parents.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a college freshman and when I tell you I'm just barely making it, this is no exaggeration. I knew college was going to be rough but I didn't think it would take so much of my time.

I'm a little late with my psychology paper and I would certainly appreciate it if you would help me out. What I need is a rough draft, about 1,200 words. I'd like you to list the principal causes for the deterioration of morality in our society.

And please touch on the major problems of today's youth. Some authorities say the youth of today has more social pressures than the youth of 25 years ago. Please bring out this point.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart, Annie old girl. I knew you wouldn't let me down. You have a kind face. I'll bet you weren't bad looking in your day. — EIGHT BALL.

Dear Eight: So all you need is 1,200 words — sort of a rough draft? Are you sure you don't want me to write the paper and have it typed in finished form?

Look, Doll, every year about this time I get a few dozen requests from kids who would like me to do their work. I'll tell you what I tell the rest of them.

Nobody wrote my papers when I was in school and I'm not going to write papers for anyone else. Haul your carcass over to the library (Slippery Rock has a fine one) and get to work, Bub.

Keyboard Caper

Dear Ann: I'm a 12-year-old boy who used to be happy and normal until my mother decided I should be a great piano player. I have been taking lessons for eight months and I hate it. Music is supposed to bring happiness but it is ruining my life.

I've thought of calling our doctor and asking him which is healthier for a growing child — to be in a stuffy house practicing the piano or to be outside playing ball in the fresh air.

Somebody said that Erroll Garner still practices every day. If a great piano player like that has to practice every day after all the playing he has done, when does a person get good enough to relax? Please help me. — NO MOZART.

Dear No Mo: Erroll Garner doesn't practice to GET good. He practices to STAY GOOD. Keep beating those ivories, fella, even though you hate it. It's good discipline and one day you'll be glad your mother made you stick with it.

The DOCTOR Says

By DR. W. G. BRANDSTADT

Q — I have had extrasystoles for over nine years. They are worse after I eat. The doctors tell me not to worry about them. Is there any way to stop them?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — Extrasystoles or skipped beats are often more noticeable after a meal or when one is excited. Since they are no threat to your health, the best treatment is to learn to ignore them just as you have learned to ignore the taking of air into your lungs 18 or 20 times a minute.

Q—I have attacks of PAT which come on with no warning. When I have an attack, it is hard to speak. I get nervous and breathless but have no pain. My doctor can stop an attack by pressing on my carotid sinus. Would it be safe for me to do this myself?

A — Paroxysmal atrial (auricular) tachycardia (PAT) is characterized by sudden attacks of rapid pulse — about 160 beats a minute. These attacks are frightening rather than dangerous.

In some victims squeezing the carotid sinus in the neck gives prompt relief and since your doctor can't be with you every time you have an attack he should teach you to do this yourself. Deep pressure on the eyeballs may be equally effective. Guanethidine or quinidine (both are prescription drugs) may be used if these methods don't work.

Q—My heart beats so hard it jerks my whole body. Is this just something to be expected with advancing years?

A—Palpitation may occur at any age. It is caused by the pouring of adrenalin into your blood due to apprehension or similar emotions. In some women, it is more prevalent after the menopause. As with all emotional disturbances, it is important for the victim to take stock of his life situation and adopt a calmer attitude.

Q — After an electrocardiogram, my doctor told me I had an incomplete right bundle branch block of the heart. Is this bad? I take Atarax, but only when I get pains in my chest. Is this the best treatment?

A—In heart block, the degree of seriousness (ranging from inconsequential to ominous) must be determined by a doctor with special training in heart disease. Since Atarax is a tranquilizer, I would assume that your block is not the serious kind. The latter is best treated by implanting an electronic pacemaker under the skin.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Brothers Given Midland Hearing

Two brothers were arraigned on charges stemming from an accident Monday afternoon in Midland.

Appearing before Squire Steve Germusa Monday night at the Midland borough building were Willis E. Rawl and Claybourne Rawl of Harmony Ave., New Brighton RD 1.

Willis Rawl was released under $300 bond after being charged for violation of a suspended driver's license by Industry Patrolman Marko Ratkovich. His brother was charged with disorderly conduct by drinking. He was released on $20 bond.

Ratkovich cited the two in Ohio View, Industry, following an accident in Midland.

Midland police said Willis Rawl was driving a car that struck a parked vehicle on the property of Acon Pontiac. Officers said they fled the scene in a 1962 sedan.

Willis Rawl's license had been suspended Aug. 9, 1967. His suspension was to have been over Friday. The suspension was ordered by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Midland police will file charges against him for leaving the scene.

S. E. Knudsen New Head Of Ford Motor

DETROIT (AP) — Semon E. Knudsen, named president of Ford Motor Co. after resigning a top position with General Motors Corp., will take over many of Henry Ford II's duties with the nation's second largest manufacturing firm.

Ford announced Tuesday that Knudsen, 55, had been chosen as president. He said Knudsen will be the chief operating officer and take on Ford's duties as chief executive in his absence. Ford, whose grandfather founded the automotive company, remains as chairman of the board.

In Washington business circles, there were rumors that Ford might be in line for a high government post, possibly at Cabinet level. But the White House said it knew nothing of such a move, and Ford told a news conference he had no plans to take a government post "at the present time."

Only a week ago, Knudsen was an executive vice president at General Motors, the No. 1 automaker and Ford's chief competitor. But Knudsen resigned after he was passed over for the presidency of GM in favor of Edward N. Cole, who in turn replaced James Roche, now board chairman.

Knudsen, son of a former GM president, had worked for GM for nearly 30 years.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

It's Almost Day-Time At CBS

Doris Day and CBS still won't admit officially that she is set to star in a weekly half-hour situation series for the network next fall, yet producers Bob Sweeney and Dick Dorse have 15 script outlines all set, and as soon as Doris finishes a movie she's now doing for CBS she'll begin shooting for the series.

Hal Humphrey

"We're still negotating, and there are about 15 lawyers involved, but nothing is signed yet," insists Martin Melcher, Doris' husband, mentor and executive producer. "This movie that Doris is doing for CBS is a separate deal entirely from the series.

-:-

WHEN THE HAGGLING between the Melcher and CBS lawyers is over, Doris will turn up on a CBS film set as a widow with two boys (6 and 8) and headed back to her father's ranch (somewhere in the Southwest) where she thinks the boys won't miss their dead father so much.

Doris Martin (her name in the series) intends staying only a short while at the ranch, but Grandpa has other plans and tries all sorts of dodges to keep them with him, including some attempted matchmaking for daughter Doris.

"We'll avoid any one attachment, though," explains Sweeney. "There'll be various guys she'll meet."

-:-

"YES," agrees Melcher, "but she still will stand for morality. Everything will be wholesome, as it is in her movies."

Melcher doesn't count all of those risque and double-entendre situations Doris usually finds herself involved in with Rock Hudson and others.

"Don't forget she's always the victim. She has an inner morality which prevents her doing anything wrong knowingly," Melcher says.

"In one movie Doris was raped. That was 'Love Me, or Leave Me,' the Ruth Etting story with Jimmy Cagney, but that's the only time she became involved sexually, and, as I say again, she was the victim."

-:-

"THAT'S RIGHT," adds Sweeney, "and this morality image of hers is really suited to TV, don't you think? Oh, there may be some sexual overtones, but, as Mary says, Doris won't be to blame."

When one thinks about Doris along those lines, one wonders why she hasn't been in TV long ago. She epitomizes that old line of doggerel of the mother who gives permission to her daughter to "hang your clothes on a hickory limb but don't go near the water."

Doris obeys and that makes her the perfect TV heroine. She can't help it, after all, if some boy happens along and ties knots in her undies.

-:-

NOW WE COME to the question of why Doris wants to do TV at all. She makes an average of 2½ movies a year, is always big box offce and doesn't have to risk the overexposure and-or instant failure which TV can bring to the biggest star.

Husband Melcher says Doris likes to work, and what difference does it make which medium it's in?

That sounds reasonable, but perhaps Melcher and Doris also have that intuitive feeling that she can't go on mining that same movie vein forever, and if the money and other fringe benefits are right in TV, then why not try TV while she can hire as many lawyers as CBS?

CBS at this point is ready to wheel and deal on a large scale for Doris' services, because the stars they have now are getting no younger.

LUCILLE BALL and Jackie Gleason threaten to quit each year around contract time. Jack Benny was put out to pasture by CBS three years ago. Andy Grffith is leaving his series next year. Red Skelton and Ed Sullivan can't go on forever.

The network has called itself the "network of the stars," so its need for some new ones is here right now, and Doris Day would make a bright gem in the CBS crown. There's a chance, however, that making her a widow with two boys could be just too darned wholesome — even for Doris Day.

Local Man Fined $15 For Reckless Driving

John Morrell, 32, of Jackson St. was fined $15 and costs Tuesday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when he switched his plea from not guilty to guilty on an Ohio Highway Patrol charge of reckless driving.

Morrell was cited Jan. 31 at 11:52 p.m. on E. 3rd St. near Broadway. The patrol reported he drove his car forward and backward at high speed on the parking lot of a drive-in restaurant with the motor roaring and the brakes squealing. Then he pulled off the lot at high speed, causing the rear of the car to slide on the pavement, with the wheels spinning and the exhaust roaring, the patrol said.

Edward F. Joseph, 44, of 131½ E. 6th St. also was fined $15 and costs on a reckless driving charge. He was cited by the patrol Jan. 31 at 11:50 a.m. after his van-type truck hit a medial strip and overturned on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

53,000 Killed In U.S. Traffic Mishaps In '67

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents killed 53,000 persons last year, matching the 1966 toll, but an increase in travel resulted in a lower death rate for distance covered.

In announcing this today, Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said, "these 1967 traffic statistics support our conviction that the traffic loss of lives and dollars on the highways is an unnecessary expense that the nation can control."

The cost of the 1967 accidents was estimated at $11 billion.

Deaths in December totaled 5,210, up 3 per cent from the 5,040 killed in December 1966.

The 1967 rate was 5.5 fatalities per 100 million vehicle miles, a 4 per cent decrease from the 1966 rate of 5.7 deaths. The record low of 5.2 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles was set in 1961. In 1957 the rate was 6.

Mileage traveled in 1967 rose to 970 billion from 930.5 billion in 1966, an increase of 4 per cent.

The council estimated that traffic accidents caused 1.9 million disabling injuries last year in addition to the deaths.

Of the $11 billion economic loss, 3.5 billion came from damaged and destroyed property and the remainder from wage losses, medical expenses and overhead cost of insurance.

There were 103 million registered drivers at the end of 1967 and 100 million registered vehicles.

Reduction Slated For Load Limits On County Roads

County Rd. 407 — from Route 518 north to Route 30; County Rd. 418 — from Route 39 east to Wellsville; County Rd. 420 — from Township Rd. 857 north to Columbiana; County Rd. 421 — from Columbiana east to Route 14.

County Rd. 430 — from Pennsylvania state line northwesterly to Cannons Mills; County Rd. 432 — from Negley north to Route 46, and County Rd. 437— from Route 14 east to Pennsylvania state line.

Stocks were used to put the legs of offenders in "to secure disorderly persons," according to the first Encyclopaedia Britannica printed in 1768.

S. E. Knudsen New Head Of Ford Motor

DETROIT (AP) — Semon E. Knudsen, named president of Ford Motor Co. after resigning a top position with General Motors Corp., will take over many of Henry Ford II's duties with the nation's second largest manufacturing firm.

Ford announced Tuesday that Knudsen, 55, had been chosen as president. He said Knudsen will be the chief operating officer and take on Ford's duties as chief executive in his absence. Ford, whose grandfather founded the automotive company, remains as chairman of the board.

In Washington business circles, there were rumors that Ford might be in line for a high government post, possibly at Cabinet level. But the White House said it knew nothing of such a move, and Ford told a news conference he had no plans to take a government post "at the present time."

Only a week ago, Knudsen was an executive vice president at General Motors, the No. 1 automaker and Ford's chief competitor. But Knudsen resigned after he was passed over for the presidency of GM in favor of Edward N. Cole, who in turn replaced James Roche, now board chairman.

Knudsen, son of a former GM president, had worked for GM for nearly 30 years.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

It's Almost Day-Time At CBS

Doris Day and CBS still won't admit officially that she is set to star in a weekly half-hour situation series for the network next fall, yet producers Bob Sweeney and Dick Dorse have 15 script outlines all set, and as soon as Doris finishes a movie she's now doing for CBS she'll begin shooting for the series.

Hal Humphrey

"We're still negotating, and there are about 15 lawyers involved, but nothing is signed yet," insists Martin Melcher, Doris' husband, mentor and executive producer. "This movie that Doris is doing for CBS is a separate deal entirely from the series.

-:-

WHEN THE HAGGLING between the Melcher and CBS lawyers is over, Doris will turn up on a CBS film set as a widow with two boys (6 and 8) and headed back to her father's ranch (somewhere in the Southwest) where she thinks the boys won't miss their dead father so much.

Doris Martin (her name in the series) intends staying only a short while at the ranch, but Grandpa has other plans and tries all sorts of dodges to keep them with him, including some attempted matchmaking for daughter Doris.

-:-

"YES," agrees Melcher, "but she still will stand for morality. Everything will be wholesome, as it is in her movies."

Melcher doesn't count all of those risque and double-entendre situations Doris usually finds herself involved in with Rock Hudson and others.

"Don't forget she's always the victim. She has an inner morality which prevents her doing anything wrong knowingly," Melcher says.

"In one movie Doris was raped. That was 'Love Me, or Leave Me,' the Ruth Etting story with Jimmy Cagney, but that's the only time she became involved sexually, and, as I say again, she was the victim."

-:-

"THAT'S RIGHT," adds Sweeney, "and this morality image of hers is really suited to TV, don't you think? Oh, there may be some sexual overtones, but, as Mary says, Doris won't be to blame."

When one thinks about Doris along those lines, one wonders why she hasn't been in TV long ago. She epitomizes that old line of doggerel of the mother who gives permission to her daughter to "hang your clothes on a hickory limb but don't go near the water."

Doris obeys and that makes her the perfect TV heroine. She can't help it, after all, if some boy happens along and ties knots in her undies.

-:-

NOW WE COME to the question of why Doris wants to do TV at all. She makes an average of 2½ movies a year, is always big box offce and doesn't have to risk the overexposure and-or instant failure which TV can bring to the biggest star.

Husband Melcher says Doris likes to work, and what difference does it make which medium it's in?

That sounds reasonable, but perhaps Melcher and Doris also have that intuitive feeling that she can't go on mining that same movie vein forever, and if the money and other fringe benefits are right in TV, then why not try TV while she can hire as many lawyers as CBS?

CBS at this point is ready to wheel and deal on a large scale for Doris' services, because the stars they have now are getting no younger.

LUCILLE BALL and Jackie Gleason threaten to quit each year around contract time. Jack Benny was put out to pasture by CBS three years ago. Andy Grffith is leaving his series next year. Red Skelton and Ed Sullivan can't go on forever.

The network has called itself the "network of the stars," so its need for some new ones is here right now, and Doris Day would make a bright gem in the CBS crown. There's a chance, however, that making her a widow with two boys could be just too darned wholesome — even for Doris Day.

Local Man Fined $15 For Reckless Driving

John Morrell, 32, of Jackson St. was fined $15 and costs Tuesday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when he switched his plea from not guilty to guilty on an Ohio Highway Patrol charge of reckless driving.

Morrell was cited Jan. 31 at 11:52 p.m. on E. 3rd St. near Broadway. The patrol reported he drove his car forward and backward at high speed on the parking lot of a drive-in restaurant with the motor roaring and the brakes squealing. Then he pulled off the lot at high speed, causing the rear of the car to slide on the pavement, with the wheels spinning and the exhaust roaring, the patrol said.

Edward F. Joseph, 44, of 131½ E. 6th St. also was fined $15 and costs on a reckless driving charge. He was cited by the patrol Jan. 31 at 11:50 a.m. after his van-type truck hit a medial strip and overturned on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

Suicide is the 10th leading cause of death among American adults.

53,000 Killed In U.S. Traffic Mishaps In '67

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents killed 53,000 persons last year, matching the 1966 toll, but an increase in travel resulted in a lower death rate for distance covered.

In announcing this today, Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said, "these 1967 traffic statistics support our conviction that the traffic loss of lives and dollars on the highways is an unnecessary expense that the nation can control."

The cost of the 1967 accidents was estimated at $11 billion.

Deaths in December totaled 5,210, up 3 per cent from the 5,040 killed in December 1966.

The 1967 rate was 5.5 fatalities per 100 million vehicle miles, a 4 per cent decrease from the 1966 rate of 5.7 deaths. The record low of 5.2 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles was set in 1961. In 1957 the rate was 6.

Mileage traveled in 1967 rose to 970 billion from 930.5 billion in 1966, an increase of 4 per cent.

The council estimated that traffic accidents caused 1.9 million disabling injuries last year in addition to the deaths.

Of the $11 billion economic loss, 3.5 billion came from damaged and destroyed property and the remainder from wage losses, medical expenses and overhead cost of insurance.

There were 103 million registered drivers at the end of 1967 and 100 million registered vehicles.

Junior Editors Quiz on COLOR WHEEL

ANSWER: Primary pigment colors, or red, blue and yellow, are the ones which can't be made from other colors — but from which the other colors may be made. Harriet shows us a color wheel. She has put a square around the primaries and a circle around the mixtures, or secondaries. She tells us that colors opposite each other on the wheel are complementaries. Wonderful things happen when one puts complementaries close together. We suggest you get some water color or tempera paints and experiment. Put a bit of the most brilliant scarlet red you can mix next to a touch of brilliant grass green. See how these touches dance and sparkle together, each bringing out the most color in the other one. Try this with the other complementaries. Then touch a little clear red into a larger amount of clear green; the mixture will be a beautiful mossy green. Try such mixtures with other pairs. What does M in the center stand for? Mud — an ugly thing you produce when you mix the complementaries in equal amounts. Stay away from it!

Junior Editors Quiz on COLOR WHEEL

ANSWER: Primary pigment colors, or red, blue and yellow, are the ones which can't be made from other colors — but from which the other colors may be made. Harriet shows us a color wheel. She has put a square around the primaries and a circle around the mixtures, or secondaries. She tells us that colors opposite each other on the wheel are complementaries. Wonderful things happen when one puts complementaries close together. We suggest you get some water color or tempera paints and experiment. Put a bit of the most brilliant scarlet red you can mix next to a touch of brilliant grass green. See how these touches dance and sparkle together, each bringing out the most color in the other one. Try this with the other complementaries. Then touch a little clear red into a larger amount of clear green; the mixture will be a beautiful mossy green. Try such mixtures with other pairs. What does M in the center stand for? Mud — an ugly thing you produce when you mix the complementaries in equal amounts. Stay away from it!
